SENATORIAL CONVENTION.

A convention is hereby called to meet at White Plains on Saturday the 2nd day of July 1892, for the purpose of nominating a Senator to represent the Seventh Senatorial District, composed of the counties of Calhoun and Cleburne. In said convention Calhoun will be entitled to 16 delegates; Cleburne 6 delegates.

S. D. G. BROTHERS, Chairman.

THE CONVENTION.

The County Convention on the 25th, called by the previous convention for the nomination of Representatives was the stormiest convention ever held in Calhoun county. At times the scenes were highly dramatic and exciting. This grew out of the very evident purpose of some gentlemen to gather in Tuesday's Convention the fruits of a former convention and the stern determination on the part of other gentlemen that they should not do so. The latter gentlemen determined to hold the convention to the uses of the Democratic party alone or dissolve it. The great crowd of people from the country and the greater part of the delegates evidently sympathized with the purpose of those who were resisting a perversion of the party machinery to local and private interests and there was a wild and exultant shout when the result showed they had been successful and that the convention, ignoring utterly all understandings at a former convention, had consulted alone the interests and welfare of the Democratic party in the county.

The most painful as well as most dramatic incident was the withdrawal from the room of the men who follow the flag of Capt. Kolb. It was painful beyond expression to see these good men and sturdy Democrats of the days of yore formally taking leave of the party of their fathers and launching their ship on the wild sea of Independentism, to drift politically to unknown waters from which they may never sail back to us again. They parted from us in anger. This might have been averted and we might have parted in peace, as Col. Caldwell eloquently suggested, had Mr. Whiteside's resolution endorsing the State House Convention, its acts, platform and nominations been adopted at the outset. The writer talked to the leaders of the Kolb forces and they were perfectly willing to have such a test instituted and to leave the hall in peace if they could not accept the resolutions. But some of the delegates opposed this sensible disposition of the question and hours were consumed by a credentials committee, where the same test was applied, and they were unseated instead of being permitted to retire quietly and in good humor, as they would have done upon the passage of the Whiteside resolution. The insistence on the procedure which resulted in turning them out rather than permitting them to go out of their own motion may have been good politics, but we utterly fail to see it. In a great measure the action of the convention has removed them beyond the influence of persuasion. Some of those who parted from us in anger may come back to us, but some never will. Most of them might have been reclaimed by persuasive argument but for this unhappy incident.

It is needless to say that a great majority of the delegates to the convention favored an early test by the passage of the Whiteside resolution, but expression was prevented by dilatory motions, and those members of the convention who were unseated should not hold the convention or the party responsible for the acts of a few filibusters. The disposition of the convention was to deal with them in a spirit of brotherly kindness.

When the convention was organized by the admission of the Jones delegations from the contested precincts, nominations were declared to be in order and Hon. G. C. Williams, of White Plains, on the eastern side of the county, and Mr. Lewis J. Morris, of Morrisville, on the western side of the county, were nominated by acclamation. Both of these gentlemen are straight Jones men and committed against the introduction of any disturbing local issues in the canvass. The people of the county may rest assured that neither of these will put through any local measure against the will of the precincts to be affected by it. With these men in the Legislature the will of the people will be respected in all measures affecting their interests.

Hon. G. C. Williams has represented this county before. He was a faithful, painstaking, industrious and intelligent member of the House, always in his place, who enjoyed the confidence and respect of the body. He will be more efficient next time by reason of his experience. His position in this canvass is to pass no bill affecting the local interests of the people, unless the people of the precincts to be affected by any change ask it at his hands. In other words, he will not put upon any precinct any local measure it does not want, even though a petition of the whole county might show a majority in favor of that measure. He will work upon the local option idea in local measures, thus bringing home to the people the great Democratic doctrine of home rule, and this we understand to be the position of Mr. Morris also. Mr. Morris is a bright young man, more than usually intelligent and active, of quick apprehension and great common sense, who will at once take rank in the House among its most active and influential members. He is a mechanic of high order, who has had much to do with employed labor. He understands well the needs of the working people and is in thorough sympathy with them. He is very popular where he is known. At the outset of this race, when it looked like a free fight, Mr. Morris brought forward his measure for the issue of bonds for road improvement, but since he has been made a standard bearer, of the Democracy he feels that he is not at liberty to press any local measure on the attention of the people calculated to divide them, and he will abandon that, and give his whole time to the canvass to the discussion of Democratic principles and reasons why the people should stand by the old party that has saved Alabama from financial ruin and social degradation. The ticket is a good one and will be elected, if the organized Democracy will stand by it, as in duty bound.

Let us forget every local difference as good Democrats, and unite to elect these men to represent us.

II. We favor the passage of such election laws as will better secure the government of the State in the hands of the intelligent and virtuous, and that will enable every elector to cast his ballot secretly and without fear or constraint.

This is the plank in the platform of the organized Democracy which the Kolbits are trying to persuade the people of the State to believe means a property and educational qualification for voters. It is susceptible of no such meaning. It means simply the passage of some election law fashioned after the Australian ballot system, such as has been adopted in half the States of the Union, and which was once considered in the Alabama Legislature. No election law could be passed in Alabama making an educational or property test for voters; because the constitution of the State expressly forbids it. If the Legislature should pass such a law it would not be worth the paper it would be written on. The Governor could not sign it without violation of his oath, and every court in the country would be bound to pronounce it void. Mr. Kolb has complained in this campaign that employers of labor compelled their men to vote in the primaries against him. Such a law as this thirteenth plank of the Democratic platform calls for would insure absolute secrecy of the ballot and perfect freedom of the working people to vote as they please, with no human being to know how they vote. Under the Australian system voters go into a room one at a time and are there furnished a ticket with the names of all the candidates of all the parties and all the independent candidates upon it. The voter takes this ticket, strikes off the names he does not want to vote for and deposits it with the election managers. When he can not read, he may call on a manager to assist him. As it is now, employers may give their men tickets and stand by to see that they cast them or march them up in squads and watch them until they have all voted. Under the proposed law the employee is secure from the observation of any one and can make up just such a ticket as he chooses to vote. This so far from being objectionable to any voter, ought to commend itself to all. It is ballot reform in the interest of free elections and the untrammelled will of the people, and it is being adopted in all the States where the Democratic party get control. It secures to the humblest voter his full rights and a free expression of opinion at the ballot box "without fear or constraint."

To secure the government of the State in the hands of the virtuous and intelligent means nothing more nor less than that this is a white man's government and shall be ruled by white men, a sentiment that has found expression in every Democratic platform adopted in this State since the war. Who desires the State to be in the hands of any other sort of men than virtuous and intelligent men? Who desires to see the State pass into the control of vicious, corrupt and ignorant men? Where would the tax payer be then? Where would the rights of the weak be then? The Bible says that when the wicked rule the people mourn.

We pity the man who can oppose this thirteenth plank in Democratic platform. In opposing it he says he is a against ballot reform, by which the poor man can have a free expression of opinion without fear of losing a job or without constraint on the part of his employer. In opposing it he says he is not in favor of securing the government of the State by the virtuous and intelligent. On the contrary he says that he is for a continuation of present methods which have become a scandal; that he is opposed to ballot reform; that he is willing to have the ballot box stuffed; that he wants bad men in office, and that he will delight to see the weak at the mercy of the strong, the poor man coerced in his choice of officials and the whole people mourning under the rule of the wicked.

CONVENTION NOTES.

Mutton suet is good for mashed

It is easier to make trades than it is to deliver the goods.

The Alliance delegates concluded to quit the business of drawing other people's chestnuts out of the fire and all calculation was destroyed by this decision. Now if they would take the studs on pulling the delicious nut out of the ashes for Capt. Kolb, they would be more sensible still.

The convention gave notice that no one man or any dozen men can control the Democracy of Calhoun. We don't take any Gideon's Band in our's.

It is said that Brother Dan Doss vehemently and repeatedly gave notice that he was the bell weather of beat 8. There is no doubt of the fact that Daniel is a stem-winder, but we do not think the Democrats of beat 8 will tolerate the expression that they are led by any man. They are a free and independent people in that good old beat.

About the time little Kirby Woodruff got to the middle of his farewell address of defiance to the convention a deputy sheriff yanked him off the bench and straightway two good Jones men were nominated for his consideration.

Amid all the confusion and excitement the greater part of the Kolbits in the convention and the audience behaved themselves with dignity and decorum. Especially noticeable in this connection was Mr. Stephens, the President of the County Alliance.

Men who heard the thunder at Gettysburg were little disturbed by the fire-cracker demonstration made at one stage of the proceedings of the convention.

No man can lead in a deliberative body who cannot preserve perfect equilibrium of temper.

Tom Harvey made a good speech, eloquent for its earnestness at times, in speaking to the report of the credentials committee and taking leave of the convention; but it is said he continued his remarks on the pavement to the effect that they would vote every negro in the county against the organized Democracy. If Thomas said that he undoubtedly dropped his candy right there.

Tom Owen made, as Joe Poets would say, a few extemporaneous remarks to that able statesman and financier Elisha Lester, on the street the day of the convention. He charged him with having told negroes that if they would vote for Kolb they should "have their rights" on Juries etc; and then proceeded to tell him what he thought of a white man who would do such a thing. It is said that Elisha grew pale, but that was the extent of his assault on Owens.

LEAVING HIM.

The Lafayette Sun, which supported Kolb up to the time of the State Convention has abandoned him. Mr. Richards, its editor, went to Montgomery, attended the Kolb caucus and there learned for the first time it was Kolb's intention to refuse to go before the State Convention and abide its action. Then he left him and since then his paper has been for Jones. So has the Choctaw Advocate abandoned him. The editor of this paper also went to Montgomery and witnessed both conventions. He saw Kolb was wrong and left him to his fate. The Advocate has heretofore been a strong supporter of Kolb. Mr. M. B. Cameron of Sumter county was one of the strongest supporters Kolb had in the State. He was elected on the State Executive Committee by the Kolb convention at the Opera House. He has abandoned Kolb after carefully considering the whole situation. He says he went into the Opera house convention under the impression that a great many more contests had been filed by the Kolbits than there was. He also saw there was nothing in the Hale and Darbour contests, but that if Kolb had all the contesting delegations he could not have been nominated. So he wrote a letter to the press abandoning him and giving his support to Gov. Jones.

One of the strongest supporters of Kolb in the State was Mr. Gorman, of Jefferson. He canvassed Jefferson, Marengo and Tuscaloosa for Kolb. He would not follow Kolb outside the party, however, and is now raising Jones clubs. It is matter of history how Talliaferro, Clayton, Boqueron, Hibbard and numbers of others of his most prominent stump speakers abandoned him at Montgomery when he decided to cross the Rubicon and turn his hand against his country. One of his most prominent friends in Pike, an eminent lawyer, refused to take a place on his ticket for supreme court judge and writes to the papers he is for Jones. So does Mr. Ramsey, business manager of the Alliance Herald, who was nominated on his ticket for Secretary of State. He is for Jones. So also is Mr. Turner, of St. Clair, who was nominated on his ticket for Supt. of Education. And so it goes throughout the State. Good men are leaving him by hundreds.

GOOD BY, REUBEN.

Another Kolb Paper, That Will Fight for Democracy.

Choctaw Advocate. Mr. J. D. Mayberry, a Kolb delegate from this county, returned Sunday from the Democratic State Convention. Yesterday he called on us and in a clear and plain manner related the action of Captain Kolb at Montgomery last week. Captain Kolb was talked to by scores of his followers and begged not to bolt, but go before the State Democratic Convention and stand his defeat, to which he would not heed.

How much better would it have been for him and for the Alliance had he obeyed the voice of the majority of his friends, some of whom had exerted every effort in working for him and his cause. But alas! he would not, and to-day he stands before the Democratic party as an enemy to its principles and as a fraud to that grand and noble order, the Farmers' Alliance, and as a dead cock in the pit of politics in the State of Alabama.

More honorable would it have been in him had he remained in the fight and stood bravely to the cause of Democracy and faced his defeat like a man, instead of going off in a convention of his own, thereby causing a split in the Democratic family.

While we have seen a strong friend advocated, worked for and supported Captain R. F. Kolb, yet we, like many other ardent admirers, regret the steps taken by him at Montgomery last week and cannot conscientiously endorse his movement. Captain Kolb did not go before the regular Convention, but was nominated by a minority of the delegates instructed for him in a separate Convention. This convention was composed of about sixty delegates and some warm supporters of the Captain, while the other delegates instructed for him cast their votes for Jones.

Captain Kolb's eagerness to run through was contrary to our opinion and quite a shock to not only us, but to a majority of his friends. This movement has to some extent caused a split in the Alliance, one of the grandest organizations ever put on foot, the principles of which are sound and the demands just. We love the Alliance and will advocate its principles so long as the light remains under the old Democratic flag.

We have never endorsed Mr. Jones for Governor, but will under the old Democratic banner do so as cheerfully as we have supported Mr. Kolb. We have room for the Alliance, the Democratic party and nothing more. We shall from this day release ourselves from the support of the once zealous Captain and turn our banner to the support of Governor Jones and Democracy, but in company with many others regret the steps taken by Mr. Kolb and bid him good-by.

Enough of Him.

The National Advocate is the People's party national organ, founded at Washington by the late President L. L. Polk, of the Farmer's Alliance. The third party men in this State will read the following from that paper with interest and possibly with profit:

"After a heated contest between the two aspirants for the gubernatorial nomination Mr. Kolb is defeated, and Mr. Jones nominated. This is the second time this contest has been made with the same result. During the past three years Mr. Kolb has been riding the alliance for his own personal political gain, and the time has come to throw him over. For three years he has headed off all reforms by dividing the people, the alliance, and the reform movement in general. The people of Alabama have had enough of this man and his methods; he was never a true alliance man, much less a reformer; he was always a partisan Democrat. Now that he has been defeated, he lacks the manhood to accept it, but has started up as an independent Democrat, and by that means intends to kill out the People's party movement in that State. The time has come for true reformers in Alabama to shake off this demagogue, and start out with an earnest, honest reformer like President Adams, or some other good man. They have suffered enough with Kolb."

Democrats who have spent the larger part of their lives fighting a common, or an uncommon enemy will hesitate long and consider the question prayerfully before they reverse their life long practice and stultify their life long records. It would be unjust to themselves, unfaithful to their children, whose proudest legacy would be their fathers devotion to his principles and his party. Don't do it. Your lives will not be long enough for you to retrieve so grievous a mistake. Tusculum Alabamian.

Letter From Senator Morgan.

A friend and army comrade of Senator Morgan, wrote him recently in terms of warm regard, and gave expression to his earnest approval of his attitude on the silver question, and as a Democrat who devoted himself to the welfare of the people. He also stated that he was a supporter of Reuben F. Kolb, for Governor. The following is a portion of Senator Morgan's reply, and indicates his view of Kolb's candidacy.

My Dear Friend and Comrade:

Your letter of June 10th gives me great pleasure and some pain. Your kind regard for me as an army comrade excites my personal pride, for I never saw a man in the Confederate service who was not a true patriot—a self-sacrificing man—and the esteem of such men is the greatest honor I ever enjoyed.

You think well of me as a true Democrat. I have tried to earn that distinction by a faithful support of the principles of that great body of American citizens. I have not been a time server, nor a man server, in my political course, but have regarded all times as being the right time to vote and act for the welfare of our country, and all good men as the right men to unite with in these efforts, if we agree in the principles of our action.

I do not mean that we must agree in everything but in all essential matters. As men who agree in principles must combine in parties or else waste their strength in our free government, I am a party man, and in that sense I belong to the Democratic party. I was not as some claim to be born in the Democratic party. If there is any law of inheritance in politics I was born a Whig. When I grew up to manhood I studied the questions that divided the great parties to the best of my capacity and with a sincere purpose to do right, and freely adopted the Democratic creed as to our Constitution and the true policy of our government. My studies, observation, experience and convictions have constantly strengthened me in the belief that I am right in being a Democrat. I am also satisfied that this sedate choice, made early in life, has brought me into fellowship with the wisest, most patriotic and best body of men, the whole country over, that has ever been united in a political party in this or any other country.

In that party every just interest of society has its representatives, and the emulation, rivalry, ambition and honest ambition that finds a home on every manly bosom, is found there in full and proper development. It is not to be expected that such high motives and purposes will not at times, produce great friction and sometimes, discontent; but it is to be reasonably expected in such a body of men as compose the great Democratic party, that justice will be done sooner or later. If I cannot have my way in respect of all the measures, or all the men, that I feel the country needs for the promotion of the general welfare, I cannot doubt that the truth honestly presented and faithfully advocated, will prevail in the end.

Having such a great and powerful body as the Democratic party, to hear what I may have to say, and to consider it and act upon it, I feel that it is right and becoming in me to stay inside the body of that organization—who are my friends—rather than to take an appeal to another body of men who have always been enemies of the principles I profess and the measures I advocate.

Why should a man pretend to be a Democrat when he says he must go out of the party or its organization to find honest men? The world will never believe that sort of a story in matters that belong to politics. If the truth cannot live and grow in the bosoms of 7,000,000 Democrats it is not likely to prosper when 7,000 Democrats take it outside the party and attempt to "raise it by hand," rather than at the bosom of its truth.

I have, purposely, avoided those quarrels in our State over those men who have recently been brought forward for the offices, yet I have been very earnest in my support of the re-election of Governor Jones. He is a good sound, Democrat, a man of courage and honor, devoted to the welfare of the people, has made a good Governor and deserves the endorsement of a re-election. I cheerfully give him my support. Capt. Kolb's friends assert that the Convention that nominated Jones in 1890 was dominated and controlled by fraud. I do not believe this charge. If I had no better ground for this disbelief, I would cite the fact that Capt. Kolb, when the fact were all fresh and known to him, gave his earnest support to Jones. But I have better reasons than this for saying that the Convention dealt fairly with Capt. Kolb. That question has been submitted to the people during this year and they have decided that the accusation was unjust. That vote ought to settle that question. But Capt. Kolb is not willing to submit to the voice of the people. In his anger he turns upon the people and attacks them. He and some few of his delegates have refused, it seems, even to sit in a Convention to which they were chosen, because they would find defeat there, representing counties where they allege frauds were committed in the recent primaries and county conventions.

This accusation is too broad to be tolerated by the people without the most convincing proof. Men are not to be allowed, in civilized countries, to be judges in their own cause. If Capt. Kolb and his followers felt that the Convention that has just met was a corrupt body, that could not or would not do right, they should have entered it boldly and made an exposure of its corruption. They chose to step outside the Convention and denounce it. They have on hand a heavy undertaking and cannot succeed. They should be very careful in their campaign, not to be found in worse company than the Democratic State Convention, or the men they have nominated for the State officers.

It is this question as to who they will unite with that has caused me the greatest anxiety, and it is on this question that I hope to be able to make some speeches in Alabama. Let us adhere to our organization and stick to our colors. The generals may not suit us, but we will do what we have done before, win the battle with the private soldiers.

I have written you thus at length because I am anxious to stand by your side as a comrade in peace as we have stood together when all was involved in the struggle.

Your sincere friend,
JOHN T. MORGAN.

CHILTON COUNTY.

A Mass Meeting of Democrats.

Clanton Ala., June 25.—At a mass meeting of the Democratic Party of Chilton county, held in Clanton on the 25th inst., to further Democratic unity here, among other things, Best Committees were appointed to wait upon the candidates, delegates to the conventions, get to be held and members of the Executive Committee were nominated by the best primaries to ascertain what they proposed to do in support of the regular nominees of the party. A committee of fifteen was also appointed to meet here today and receive the report of the Best Committees and were empowered to take such other action as in their judgment would be conducive to Democratic success and unity. This Committee met today and finding from the Best reports that a majority of such candidates, delegates and members of the Executive Committee were not in accord with the Democratic party and did not propose to support the regular nominees on the State ticket, and that consequently there was no regular organized Democratic party in this county, proceeded to take the necessary steps for such organization under article 5 of "Party Law" and appointed a Committee to wait upon the State Executive Committee and carry a petition for an order to reorganize the party here. This petition was signed by a much greater number than is required, many signing that were not in accord two years ago. Fully 500 names could have been procured.

The committee for this purpose are Messrs. W. A. Collier, O. A. Pake, J. A. Gage, J. P. Allen and D. J. Watersworth.

Mr. Kolb has for the past five years set himself up as the self-constituted candidate of the Farmers for Governor of Alabama. Failing to get their endorsement through the regular Democratic channels, he is now attempting to "balkanize" the State. The farmers of Alabama have, while loudly avowing Mr. Kolb's claims, never that they give their fealty to him rather than to men. The majority of the farmers of Alabama will not assist in any way in making the State a "Bourgeoisie" State.

Had and had. The printers of New York have invented a name for the Republican ticket which will probably stick by it during the entire campaign. They have had circulars printed and distributed throughout the newspaper offices of New York in which Messrs. Harrison and Tildes are referred to as "Had and Rat." Mr. Tildes' arrangement of his difference with the union printers may prove, like Mr. Blaine's resignation from the cabinet, to have been thought of too late.—Chicago Herald.

Perry Politics.

Clintonton, June 25.—Your correspondent, in an interview with some of the most influential citizens of Clayton and McKinley in reference to the Kolb ticket's strength in those beats was surprised at the changes that had come over the most prominent Kolb men living there. These districts contained some of the most prominent leaders, the men who made the most fuss at the convention, and these men have taken down the Kolb signs and are praising Gov. Jones.

WHY HE SHOULD BE ELECTED.

NEW YORK SUN COMES SQUARELY OUT FOR GROVER.

Editor Bang Thinks the Devil Himself is Better for the Country Than Harrison and Force Bills.

New York, June 21.—The following is a leading editorial in the Sun today: "There is one question depending on the election of the next president which, in its momentous importance and vital importance, must seem to every philosophic observer to exceed every other political question that people are now called upon to determine.

All differences of opinion respecting administrative reform, on silver coinage or free trade or protection for personal qualities or antecedents of candidates, in short the ordinary array of electoral controversies, are in comparison, of inferior, indeed of almost trivial moment. We mean the question whether those southern states which have inherited a negro population surpassing the number of their white citizens, shall, by federal law and federal military force be subjected to political domination of negroes; to negro legislatures, negro governors and negro judges in their courts, or whether they shall continue to be governed by white men as now.

Now it makes no difference who may be president when the republican party elects since Blaine is now permanently out of line of power; that party is by its nature and traditions under the necessity of enacting and executing an election law whose purpose and effect will be to put the negro in control of several of the southern states. There will be some unwillingness on the part of the patriotic minority among republicans who will revolt at these consequences of such a measure, but their opposition cannot avail. The necessity of the situation will suppress all such resistance.

A large bill is the first and inevitable result of a sweeping republican victory in November. On the other hand, and by the nature and necessity of the ideas involved the success of the democracy, is death to force bill projects. Killed in this election it can never be revived. In this view of the contest, what conscientious democrat can hesitate about his duty? Better vote for Blaine and white government of southern states, even were the candidate the devil himself, rather than consent to the election of respectable Benjamin Harrison with a force bill in his pocket."

In another editorial the Sun quotes from the first two sections platform down to words "Defeat of the force bill" and says, "this is the essential part of the platform on which Grover Cleveland was nominated at Chicago yesterday morning, fairly, squarely and honorably, and by the votes of more than two thirds of Democratic delegates." Another editorial quotes the fable of the fool at Philippi who gave advice to Roman general, Octavius, which was not taken and comments the fable to the attention of William C. Whitney with the suggestion that he keep his eyes peeled.

Still another editorial says it is a matter of importance to the democracy or New York that Hill should continue at the head of the army he has done so much to organize, and says: "New York democrats are with him in failure as in success and they will be with him as long as his political principles are defended."

Two Necessities to the Front.

Sentiment don't sell clothes. It's price and quality. The LEAST of the FORMER for the MOST of the LATTER and things boom. It's no wonder we're doing the biggest trade in CLOTHING and FURNISHING GOODS. It's a characteristic of humanity to appreciate fine things, and where they are "surprise" you'll find the people.

The latest Fashion Plates the suits with bound and stitched edges, plain or silk facings. You read of these things—naturally you look for them when you "set out" to buy a suit. You'll FIND 'EM HERE—all of them, in chevots, plain black and light shades, tweeds, cassimeres and worsteds, cut in the scale of lengths that are proper. Plain weaves and wide wales. The linings and trimmings are as carefully selected and put in places the outside finishings. We're not ashamed to have you look our suits through and through. We're conscious they're all right.

Straight as a thread through the eye of a needle we have entered into every phase of Suit Fashion. When you make a change with US this Spring it will be for the better. We have "shaved" the price until only a tissue of profits covers the cost. Our line of cheapness has been drawn at $10.00 worth weighs light below that price. Up to $35.00 quality grows with every dollar. THERE is the highest perfection. Judge us as you find us. The sacks and three and four button cutaway frocks, made up in "wood brown," chevots, black thibets, fancy cassimers, clay's worsteds, etrick, tweeds, english homespuns, &c. Give us a variety that no three houses can combine and equal. Don't fear of the fit that is perfect beyond improvement. Our aim has been to give you the biggest money's worth you have ever had—and we have succeeded. Success piles upon success.

WORK IN CONGRESS.

THE MOST IMPORTANT MATTERS CULLED AND CONDENSED.

Notable Events in the Legislative and Executive Branches of the National Government.

Wednesday.
WASHINGTON, June 29.—In the senate, Mr. Davis, from the committee on foreign relations, reported back a bill introduced by him on the 23d, and it was placed on the calendar. The conference report on the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill was presented and agreed to. The legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill was then taken up. In the house, Mr. Hatch, the chairman of the committee on agriculture, reported back the agricultural appropriation bill with the senate amendments thereto, and asked that the senate amendments be non-concurred in and a conference ordered. Mr. Hatch's request was agreed to, and Mr. Hatch, Mr. Cunniff and Mr. Munson were appointed conferees.

Thursday.
WASHINGTON, June 30.—In the senate, the anti-union bill was gone over for one week without action by the senate judiciary committee. In the house, Mr. Forney, from the committee on agriculture, reported back the legislative appropriation bill with the senate amendments, and moved the senate amendments be non-concurred in and a conference ordered. The motion was agreed to.

Friday.
WASHINGTON, July 1.—In the house, Mr. Hatch called up the conference report on the agricultural appropriation bill and demanded the previous question upon its adoption. The previous question was ordered—yeas, 168; nays, 46—and the report was agreed to. This is the first general appropriation bill which has passed the house.

THE SITUATION.
Democratic Program as Proposed by Southern Congressmen.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—Democratic congressmen from the south—senators as well as representatives—are almost unanimous that the coming campaign must be fought out with the force bill as the principal issue. Senator Faulkner, of West Virginia, said:

"We will have to go in and try to elect Mr. Cleveland on the force bill issue. That is the great question in the minds of the southern people, and they will rally to the support of Mr. Cleveland on that line quicker and with more determination than on any other. I want to say right here," added Senator Faulkner, "that the editorial in The Sun last Friday, on this subject, was the ablest and best contribution to the campaign I have yet seen. It will have a wonderfully good effect upon the people of the south."

Senator Pugh, of Alabama, who has been regarded as a reluctant opponent of Mr. Cleveland's nomination, says it is incumbent upon every democrat to turn in and help elect Cleveland. He joins his colleague, Senator Morgan, in insisting that the preservation of the liberties of the people of the southern states is the nearest and clearest subject now before the country. Personal opposition to Mr. Cleveland sinks into insignificance before the terrors of a threatened force bill, Senator Pugh says, and he has fallen into line to do all in his power to elect Cleveland.

HE STILL LIVES.

Although it was thought that he had been lynched.

SEDAIA, Mo., July 2.—Jesse Munser, who was supposed to have been hanged by a mob August 31, last, has appeared upon the streets of his native town of Sedalia. On the date mentioned, two men entered the bank of Carter, and with drawn revolvers, secured $600 from the cashier. A posse was quickly organized. One of the men was overtaken; half the stolen money was found in his possession, and he was hanged to a tree. The said man was said to be Jesse Munser, who disappeared from his home three days before. After the burial the remains were disinterred by Munser's father and mother and recognized as their son. Munser told that he had known all along of the sensation he was supposed to have caused, and rather enjoyed it, but preferred to keep quiet. He had been working near Gallatin, Mo., as a farm hand. When the man who was lynched is now a complete mystery.

FOSTER GETS IT.

He is the Successor of James G. Blaine in the Cabinet.

WASHINGTON, June 30.—Secretary Tracy has had a two hours' conference with the president. It is understood that he was offered the position of secretary of state, and declined it. Soon after the appointment to this position of John W. Foster of Indiana, was made.

Mr. Foster has represented the government in the arrangement of many foreign treaties, and is an accomplished diplomat. This places two Indians in the cabinet. It is vastly to Indiana's credit that though she furnished such a Republican party with a president and two cabinet officers, she is still Democratic.

THE WORLD'S FAIR BANKRUPT.
CHICAGO, June 30.—Bankruptcy has at last reached the World's Columbian Exposition. Every cent of the appropriation has been expended, and Secretary Dickson has not enough money left to buy postage stamps unless he draws on his own resources.

Director General Davis has not drawn his salary for several months. Colonel Dickson has not drawn his salary for the same period in order that the clerks in his office could draw their salaries in full.

But few of the members of the national board of directors of the exposition have received the money they advanced for railroad fare and hotel expenses. The last postage stamp in Secretary Dickson's office was put on a letter to Secretary Davis, and the condition of the national commission's finances.

STOOD UPON THE ORDER OF HIS GOLF.
VISALIA, Cal., July 1.—Rev. James Wilson, the pastor of the First Presbyterian church in this city, Tuesday night was riding 24 hours to leave town. Wilson was in the habit of taking two young girls riding in a buggy, and on several occasions took undue liberties with them.

Tuesday the father of the girls came to town to kill Wilson, but was persuaded not to do so. Wilson acknowledged his guilt. He is over 70 years of age, and heretofore has been greatly esteemed. He died last evening, leaving his family behind.

TWO CONVENTIONS IN ONE WEEK.
ATLANTA, July 2.—The Southern Teachers' convention and the Georgia Teachers' convention assemble in Atlanta next week.

Well known educational delegates, all well known educationalists, will be in attendance. The state convention will convene next Tuesday morning, July 5, in the hall of representatives at the hotel. This convention will be held in session Tuesday and Wednesday. On Thursday morning the Southern Teachers' convention will be called to order by President Palmer of Alabama, and will remain in session two days.

KILLED BY THE MOB.
MACON, Ga., July 2.—A negro named Thomas W. Ross, of Lee county, was shot and instantly killed by Bailiff W. D. Morris, on Main street, at Perry. Morris had arrested Ross, and was charging him with stealing and had his prisoner in a buggy. Arriving on the street the negro suddenly jumped from the buggy and ran. Morris called to him to stop, but he did not. The sheriff drew a bead on him with his pistol. Two shots were fired, the last of which brought the fugitive down on the sidewalk. He was dead before any one of the bystanders reached the spot. Morris was at once placed under arrest by Sheriff Cooper and a coroner's jury was summoned. After investigating the matter Morris was held under a $500 bond.

WILD WITH INDIGNATION.
BRANZ, Ind., July 2.—Indignant women have driven Mrs. Alice Bagley from the neighborhood and from the city. Mrs. Bagley is the woman who, after alienating the affections of Policeman Charles Gross a few days ago, set him with a club. Mrs. Bagley leaped from the train car of the city, where she was met by Gross, and returned late at night to the city. The woman, with excitement, and threatened to tar and feather both Mrs. Bagley and Gross.

WITH A WINCHESTER.
DENVER, Tex., July 2.—F. W. Harris, editor of the Greenville Herald, while driving with his brother-in-law, Dr. Y. K. Yowell, late of Greenville, on the road, with Detective D. M. Davis. On seeing the Harris brothers, Dr. Yowell fired at them twice and then ran. Dr. Yowell drew a careful sight along his Winchester at the flying figure and shot Dr. Yowell dead with a bullet through his heart. It is alleged that Yowell was hunting Harris' horse.

GOLDWARD WHIPPED McVITT.
SAN FRANCISCO, July 2.—The wigwag took place the Joe McVitt-Joe Goldward fight took place was packed, fully 8,000 people being present. It is estimated that $50,000 was wagered in this city. Odds were 20 to 17 and 10 to 8 in Goldward's favor. Goldward and McVitt fought 21 rounds. The prize was $5,000, of which the loser was to take $2,500. Goldward won in the fifteenth round.

OWES IT TO CLEVELAND.
NEW ORLEANS, July 2.—A special to The Times-Democrat says: Hon. H. G. Turner has been nominated as the Democratic candidate for congress from the eleventh district. He owes his nomination to the fact that he was an ardent Cleveland man.

JOHN BIDWELL.

HE IS THE PROHIBITION LEADER FOR PRESIDENT.

The Platform Is for Free Coinage and Woman's Rights—Equal Wages Demanded.

CINCINNATI, July 1.—The national prohibition convention organized by electing ex-Governor John B. St. John of Kansas temporary chairman, and the name of A. F. Wolfenbarger, of Nebraska, for secretary, and a list of assistant secretaries and sergeants-at-arms selected by the national committee met no opposition.

A slight fight over the temporary rules prepared by the committee occurred on the question of their adoption. J. B. Cranfield of Texas, taking the lead against their adoption. These provided that only delegates present should be entitled to vote. This would have deprived a number of far off delegates, especially those in the extreme south, of their representation in the temporary organization, as all their delegates could not come on account of the expense.

He said that if those rules were adopted it would leave the control of the convention in state around Cincinnati. It would cost $3,500 to send the delegates to the convention, and they could not afford it. The temporary rules would probably be the permanent rules. He moved that each delegation have the right to cast its full vote whether all the delegates were here or not.

After a lively tilt Mr. Cranfield carried his amendment on a rising vote, and then the rules with this amendment were adopted. The roll of states was called for the announcement of committee membership, and then the convention adjourned until 4 o'clock, after giving directions to the committee to proceed at once to the work assigned them. The most interest centered in the membership of the platform committee and the new national committee.

At the afternoon session, the platform and national committee were announced. The credentials committee reported 973 delegates present—Louisiana and South Carolina being the only states which did not send delegates. The presentation of the report of the committee on permanent organization recommending Colonel Ritter, of Indianapolis, for permanent chairman and Sam Small for permanent secretary, and reinstating the rule voted down in the morning giving states' votes only for delegates present, was the signal for a fight. Rev. Mr. Small presented a resolution recommending that each state delegation be permitted to cast the full vote to which it is entitled. He made a vigorous speech in favor of the minority report, and protested against depriving the states of their full vote as a monumental injustice. The minority report was defeated by a vote of 339 to 72, and then the majority report was adopted, so that absent delegates will have no vote.

Colonel Ritter was escorted to the platform, and Governor St. John turned over the gavel to him. Speaking consumed the balance of the evening.

Second Day's Proceedings.
CINCINNATI, July 2.—The Prohibition convention opened the second day with quite a lively scene, caused by a speech made by M. G. French, night before, in which he brought the slavery question in the sixth into discussion, the application being made from slavery to liquor.

This aroused the indignation of southern delegates, and when the convention came to order, Mr. W. W. Gibbs of Virginia, offered a set of resolutions deprecating the act of the lady delegate, and objecting to the language of the resolutions—long since dead—into the proceedings of that body.

A delegate raised the point of order, held by the chairman to be well taken, and the resolutions should go to the committee on resolutions; but Mr. Stevens, of Pennsylvania, moved to suspend the rules and pass Mr. Gibbs' resolution. The resolutions were almost unanimously passed.

Chairman Dickel of the national committee, then introduced Dr. Evans of Abingdon, Va., who presented a plea for contributions to enable the committee to present its work. They needed money, he said, not for "blocks of five," but to keep up the contest against the liquor traffic. The liquor traffic was a free trade in the liquor traffic, and the prohibitionists ought to be as ready to make sacrifices for money as their opponents were for money getting.

Contributions poured in lively for awhile, and a purse of $20,000 was raised. The platform was next adopted. It declared the opposition to the manufacture and sale of liquor, and pronounced it "a foe to civilization, the arch enemy of popular government and a public nuisance."

It charged the duty of woman to vote, and demands that equal labor be paid equal wages without regard to sex, and favors the free and unlimited coming of silver and gold. The platform declares in favor of the government controlling railroads, telephone, and other public corporations.

Then followed the balloting for the national executive committee. John B. St. John, of California, W. Jennings Donahoe, of New York and L. B. Logan, of Ohio were put in nomination. On the first ballot, General John Bidwell of California, was nominated to head the national prohibition ticket. The totals, before any changes or corrections were made, stood 382 for Bidwell, 184 for Stewart, 142 for Donahoe and three for Johnson, 457 being necessary to a choice.

Fatal to a Twin Boy.
RALEIGH, N. C., July 1.—Fielding Knott, of Granville county, who is a leading tobacco grower in the state, was the father of five twin boys so nearly alike that it was necessary in their infancy to mark them to distinguish them. They were four years old, and were named George Cleveland and Allen G. Therman. The twins were playing in the kitchen at their home, chasing each other around the room. The cook placed on the floor a large pot of boiling vegetables. George Cleveland fell into it. His agony was intense until death came to his relief.

TEXAS OUTRAGES.

Three Baptists Meet Their Death by an Angry Mob.

GALVESTON, July 1.—A dispatch received from Colmes' Mill says that three negroes—Prince Wood, Tom Smith and Henry Gaines—arrested for outraging three white women near Spurgis, confessed to having committed the crime. After the confession, ten men were deputized to convey the negroes to Woodville jail. They started with them, and when about a mile from Spurgis fifty masked and armed men demanded the release of the negroes, emphasizing their demand by leveling their guns upon the guards. The guards were told to retreat their steps a few paces, which they did. A few moments later a volley from the guns of the masked men told the fate of the negroes. The deputies returned to the scene and found the bodies of the three negroes riddled with bullets. Prince Wood, leader of the negroes, was a former convict.

AN OFFICER MURDERED.

PORT WORTH, Tex., July 1.—Officer Lee Walker was murdered by a gang of negro thugs at 1 o'clock in the morning. One of the negroes was killed, and a mob made a rush but failed to get him. If the others are captured they will be lynched.

A LIVELY WAR.

The Iowa Wet and Dry People Are Fighting Over Whiskey.

CRESTON, June 30.—There is a lively war going on here against saloons. The feeling has been intensified by the swearing out of search warrants by Deputy Chief of Police Maxwell. Searches at every place where liquor is sold reveal the fact that the saloon men have mighty good hiding places for their stock, as but little liquor was seen in the basement of the Devos Block is a saloon known as "The Catamount," so named because of the myriad of entrances, exits and dark rooms it contains for the secretion of liquors. This is supposed to be the hiding place of a half pint of whiskey, but it cannot be discovered.

Late at night two policemen hastily entered this place and present two revolvers and a search warrant, and demanded the surrender of liquor in the building be turned over to them. The proprietors told them to take it, and the two officers commenced their search, which was rewarded by finding a half pint of whiskey and part of a keg of beer. Ten minutes later whiskey and beer were being drunk over the counter as previously. At the other saloons they faced the better.

Lively times are expected, as the anti-saloon men are as determined to stay.

THE DEMOCRATIC CAMPAIGN.

A Plan of Action Being Arranged in New York—Hill's Loyalty.

NEW YORK, June 30.—The World's Albany, N. Y., special says: John Boyd Thatcher, president of the state league of democratic clubs, is busy arranging a plan of campaign for clubs throughout the state. In talking with the correspondent he paid a high compliment to Senator Hill as an organizer and said: "It shall be the task of the organization not only to aid the independent voter in the work of tariff reform, which he has so much at heart, but to convince him that within our party lines there those principles and those truths which were received from the founders of our government, and which were preserved in their rugged simplicity for a guide into the people, and a lamp unto their feet."

This is to be another campaign of education, and there will be no more intrepid campaigner than Senator Hill. He is loyal to the heart's core; he has made this a democratic state, and he would do his utmost to keep it a Democratic state.

"I shall call the executive committee of our state league together this week for conference, and in due time will hold a convention to formally introduce the campaign work."

THE CHICAGO ANARCHISTS.

An Organization of Societies Formed to Urge Their Cause.

CHICAGO, June 29.—Friends of Neebe, Schwab and Fielden are organizing to secure their pardon. A meeting was held and over 200 delegates, representing the local chapters of about 140 societies, including the Odd Fellows, Freemasons, Foresters, Knights of Honor, Knights of Labor and numerous mutual benefit and aid associations, were in attendance. Schwab wrote a letter to the meeting which concludes as follows:

"Our mistakes as to our methods of agitation may be tranquilly admitted as true and we cannot deny that we committed many errors in our campaign. We have even accused Fielden of being the direct cause of the catastrophe on Haymarket. Resolutions expressive of the sentiments of the meeting were passed."

Trying to Avoid a Sale.

CHARLESTON, June 29.—A new phase in the litigation of the South Carolina railway has been developed in the filing of a petition in behalf of J. L. W. Smith and Gustave F. Kissel, first consolidated mortgage bondholders, asking to be allowed to redeem all the prior liens and to pay the decrees heretofore granted. The petition was made returnable in the second Monday in July. Should the prayer be granted, it is thought that the sale of the road, which was ordered for November next, will be revealed and the first consolidated bondholders will reorganize, with D. H. Chamberlain, the present receiver, as president.

The Biggest Capture This Year.

DENVER, June 29.—A sensation has been caused in police circles here by one of the biggest captures of the year being made. June 22, L. J. Ryan robbed the United States Express company at Washington, D. C., of $14,000 and after going to Pittsburg, Pa., came direct to Denver. While at Pittsburg he deposited $11,000 of the stolen money with the Safe Deposit and Trust company, the receipt for which was found upon him when arrested, with $3,500 in money, when a search was made of his clothes. It will be seen that he has more than enough to make good the theft.

A special to the Washington Post from Denver says that Edwin J. Arnsperg, who scolded from that city with $50,000, has been arrested and the money recovered. Harry Williams, watchman on the steamer City of London, shot Arnsperg, a colored roustabout, over a game of craps and the latter is expected to die. Dr. Miles J. Green, grand secretary of the United League of Alabama, who is one of the most prominent Masons in the state, died suddenly at his home in Montgomery. Thirty thousand people are expected at La Porte, Ind., next Thursday, June 30, to witness the laying of the cornerstone of the new $200,000 courthouse. The Masons will have charge of the exercises. The American legion in Paris cabled to Washington asking the authorities to recall Captain Borup, the military attaché, accused of having procured the plans and descriptions of the French fortifications for military purposes from the clerk in the naval department. It appears that the granite trouble is about to be settled. Last week a proposition was made which a great many of the manufacturers are willing to accept. It provides for a four years' compromise from March 1st for nine hours a day, the average price 23 cents per hour, and a pay day on or before the 15th of each month. The New York Herald correspondent from Montevideo sends additional details of the fighting on the river near San Antonio. It appears that a force of 450 insurgents attacked 200 federal troops, but were repulsed after a desperate fight. The third Vargas was killed, and the authorities rebel officers rallied their men and the government troops were finally forced back into their attachments. NOTES ON THE WORLD'S FAIR. An exhibit of bells will be made at the exposition by a large manufacturing concern in this country, and the firms preparing to display it in a reproduction of the Tzar Kolokol (king of bells), the famous broken bell of Moscow, which is 23 feet in diameter and 21 feet 3 inches high, weighs 43,772 pounds, and is used as a chapel.

ON WHICH SIDE.

Never before during any canvass in this county and State has there been as much anxiety on the part of voters to locate candidates as to their political preferences. Never before has there existed so much confusion on the subject and never before have candidates shown such a disposition to hide out and battle voters who have a perfect right to not only enquire but to know on which side candidates align themselves.

Under old conditions a candidate was known to be a Democrat or a Republican or an Independent. There was no attempt at concealment. But now we have a factional fight in the party and there is more room for dodging and dishonest profession to each side in turn than ever before. Here and there among the candidates are bold men who freely avow their preferences between Jones and Kolb, and these are more respected by both sides than the artful dodger who cannot be located. A warm adherent of Capt. Kolb walked up to a candidate for office in Jacksonville a few days ago and said: "I know you are for Jones and not afraid to own it, and for that reason I am going to vote for you. I want a man to have the courage to declare his position on one side or the other. I will not vote for any man who will not do so." And there are hundreds in the county who feel the same way.

There is a right and a wrong side to this fight in the Democratic party and every candidate intelligent enough to hold office has an opinion on the subject. What claim has any man on his fellow-citizens for place when he refuses to declare for the right? No party ought to promote a man who is too timid or too selfish to take his just share of responsibility and risk in a fight for the supremacy of its measures and men.

The Kolb followers in Calhoun, who are seeking office, have been bolder than many candidates who would like to be accounted Jones men by the organized Democracy and yet don't want to say where the Kolb men can hear it.

What claim has any man on a party when he will not give it the influence of his public support?

Here are men who want the organized Democracy of Calhoun to give them fat places but who won't raise their little fingers to promote the interests of its State ticket, for fear of losing the vote of some man who has gone wild on Kolb. Does such selfishness or cowardice deserve reward? We say no. The Democratic party has no use for men who are not willing to make sacrifices for it or who are afraid to fight its battles.

This is a critical time in the history of the State and never before has the party needed so badly every defender it can muster. If successful, it is going to bestow its rewards upon the cowards in its ranks who hid themselves when the battle raged, or it is going to give its best gifts to the men who were brave to declare for it and fight for it when it needed help?

The organized Democracy of Calhoun has the right to demand service of every man who seeks the suffrage of its voters. It should not tolerate men who will not even go so far as to declare openly for it.

Men who are trying to ride two horses in the contest are foolish. The Kolb men are going to support men who are for their man for Governor and the Jones men are going to do likewise. Both sides are going to drop the men who cannot be placed. They will be objects of suspicion to both sides and will, so to speak, fall between two stools. Never before were the masses of the voters so vigilant and inquisitive. The attitude of candid s is being freely discussed among them. The position of every candidate will be discovered in some way, and woe to those candidates who are detected in trying to deceive the people by giving private professions of loyalty to both sides as they talk to the adherents of each in turn.

On which side do you stand? Are you for organized Democracy and the preservation of white supremacy and rule by the virtuous and intelligent, or do you follow the flag of the man who is doing all he can to break down the Democratic party in the State by the help of the Republican party, fully conscious of the terrible consequences that will follow his traitorous act?

Let the voters make candidates speak out. When a man asks you to vote for him ask him where he stands. If he hesitates or trims, let him alone.

"KATIE AND THE BABIES."

To lure good men to join the Kolb organs and Kolb speakers are forever reminding them to remember "Katie and the babies."

When the man-eating tiger thirsts for human blood he hides himself in the jungle and imitates the cry of a child in distress, to lure his generous victim to his death. No less cruel, no less deceptive is the cry of "Katie and the babies" in the mouths of men who intend by it to lead men to an act of treason against their blood in contributing to the social degradation of the South, sure to follow the downfall of the organized Democracy and the substitution in its stead of a mongrel party of whites and blacks, offered chiefly, as it will be, by that old Radical gang who have always struggled to raise the negro, by force of law, to an equality with "Katie and babies."

Good friend, God has given you "Katie and the babies" in trust and imposed on you the responsibility to shield them from evil and all that can contaminate or degrade them. A mongrel government in Alabama means mixed schools and the bringing of your sweet and innocent children into an association in the school room that can be only hurtful to them. It means the abrogation of all laws that now keep the races separate and preserves to "Katie and the babies" a civilization founded on a rule of intelligence and virtue. Break down these laws by voting with the negroes, party, endorse the plank in Kolb's platform that declares against lynch law, which plank gives encouragement to brutal and bad men to commit the unpardonables in against womanhood, and then it will be indeed farewell to all chances for "Katie and the babies" in our Southland. Don't let political passion and prejudice lead you to a betrayal of your trust. Stand by "Katie and the babies" by resisting every effort to negroize the State, let the effort come from whatever quarter it may.

Col. John H. Caldwell and and Solicitor J. T. Martin made fine speeches at Rabbit Town to a large crowd of Jones and Kolb men Tuesday. It has been said that the Kolb men in Calhoun would not go out to hear speakers in behalf of Gov. Jones and organized Democracy, but the meeting at Rabbit Town disproves this. Be it said to their credit no considerable number of people in Calhoun have got to be as narrow and prejudiced as that.

Col. Caldwell and Solicitor Martin will speak at Schenck's Sulphur Springs at 11 o'clock A. M. Saturday and at Lancy's at 3 o'clock the same day. Other speakers will go out from Jacksonville as the canvass shapes up. Every true friend of Democracy should be at work.

Having seated himself astraddle the Alliance so firmly as not to be shaken off, Kolb first invited the old time white Republicans of the State to get on and take a ride and these in turn are inviting the negroes to take seats also. Some pitiful little hounds are even running around and promising the negroes to let them sit on juries if they will join the excursion party to hades. What a base betrayal of a noble order! How profoundly pitiful it is to see men who have fought in the Confederate army and men who have borne the banner of white supremacy in many a hard struggle, betrayed to such ignominious uses! White men, arise in your strength and manhood and shake the foul crew from your backs.

The Democratic Campaign Committee of this State, composed of members of the State Executive Committee, has issued an address in which they show that in the white counties of the State Gov. Jones got 136 delegates and Kolb 109½ delegates. This shows Kolb beaten in the white counties, to say nothing of the black counties, which went also heavily against him. He did not carry the State by 15,000 or any popular majority. He would not even go before the Democratic convention, but got up one of his own which was not called by any authority in the party. He is an Independent.

The negroes of Anniston beat and Oxnana held a meeting a few nights ago and issued an address to the various candidates in Calhoun county that they would not endorse any one publicly before a week before the election and J. M. Dawson, Ben Vaire, N. L. Black, I. B. Bozzer and J. W. Williams were appointed a committee to confer with the various candidates. What do they want to confer about?

The Republican Executive Committee of Lawrence county have issued an address advising the Republicans of that county to support Kolb.

The Kolb Convention.

The Kolb Convention was presided over by Rev. D. P. Williams. Anniston and Ladiga beats had held no beat meetings and were without representation. The credentials committee admitted one gentleman from Laiga beat, and one gentleman from Anniston to cast the six votes allowed that beat.

On motion of the J. M. Stewart, members of the press were invited to seats at the reporter's table.

Messrs N. J. Stephens, J. W. Anderson and J. M. Shield were placed in nomination for Representatives. Anderson received 74, Stephens 81 and Shield 8 votes. Anderson and Stephens were declared the nominees. During a lull in the Convention Tom Harvey, Len Greer and Whitt Teague made characteristic speeches. Greer tried to explain his action in the first democratic county convention in May, but could not satisfactorily explain how he came to move instructions for Jones. He did not touch on the charge that he was to get money from the Kolb fund for working for Kolb. Mr. Milligan swears that Greer's brother-in-law, Morris, says he heard Greer say he was to get $300. After adjournment of County Convention, the Senatorial Convention nominated George Eichelberger for the Senate. The chairman announced that delegates of the county convention should remain after the audience dispersed, and a secret session was held. No conclusion was arrived at as to county officers. It is understood that matter will be settled Monday night. It is almost certain the Kolbits will agree on a ticket and try to keep it secret.

We learn that certain white men in this county, who are followers of Capt. Kolb, are reading the comments of this paper on the 15th plank of the Democratic platform to the negroes and pointing out that expression in the article which declares that "this is a white man's government," thereby attempting to prejudice them against the organized Democracy, which is supporting Jones. What do these Kolb supporters mean by this? Do they intend to convey to the minds of the negroes the idea that the Kolb party is not in favor of white supremacy? What other interpretation can be put upon their acts? Good men of Calhoun, it is time you began to open your eyes. One of these fine mornings you will wake up and find yourself enlisted with negroes to fight your white brothers while they struggle to maintain the supremacy of your race in a country won by the blood of white men.

The Democratic Jones Club meeting in this place last Saturday was very largely attended by people from all parts of the county and there was a regular old camp meeting time. Col. Caldwell and Solicitor Martin made the speeches of the day. Shorter speeches were made by Messrs S. D. G. Brothers, W. W. Whiteside, J. J. Arnold, H. T. Persons, Carson Fite, J. M. McGrand, Crook, L. W. Grant, B. W. Duke, W. J. Scott, Mr. Hallman from Lancy's, and perhaps others. All these spoke boldly for Jones and his cause; steps were taken to organize the party throughout the county by the formation of clubs to co-operate with this and other clubs in the county, and a resolution was passed requesting the nominees of the organized Democracy for the Legislature to make appointments and canvass the county.

In his radical and incendiary speech at Opelika, with all his rancorous hate of the party which is resisting the attempts of Kolb and Bowman to negroize the State, Bowman confessed that Gov. Jones was a good man. Testimony coming from such a source ought to silence the little fellows who are running about over the county railing him on the Governor and painting him in the blackest colors imaginable.

"Jones is a good man." His high character has wrong praise from the lips of his bitterest foe.

Mr. Adams said in his speech at Opelika that he doubted the report that State Lecturer Beck would take the stump for Jones. But all the same Mr. Beck has made appointments to go with Gov. Jones to several points in the State and speak for him. Beck, like many other conservative men of the Alliance, sees the dangerous tendency of the Kolb movement and is doing all he can now to help put out the fire he and others have kindled.

The Green Boys of Greensport, in St. Clair county, and two Dillard boys from Snookneck in Blount county went to Hokes Bluff with a scabbard excursion party. The Dillard boys were for Kolb and the Green boys for Jones. They quarreled over their favorites and a fight ensued. Whitt Dillard was stabbed near the heart and cannot live. Bill Green had one of his fingers cut off. All were more or less hurt.

Senator Jno. T. Morgan has written a letter to Mr. T. O. Burnett, a young man of this State, in which he says: "You younger men should come forward, take up this campaign with determined energy and push the fight without a halt. You will never see a day when your services to the state and the country will be more needed or more valuable."

Jones will carry Calhoun by one thousand votes.

Whitt Teague acknowledged in the course of a speech to the county convention of Kolbits, that the lion of Radicalism and the lamb of Democracy in Cleburne and Calhoun were lying quietly down together. Later in the Republican office, in conversation with several gentlemen, he acknowledged that the Kolbits and Radicals and negroes would go together in Calhoun.

Whitt Gray, of Cleburne, attended the Kolb convention here and publicly offered to deliver Cleburne to Mr. Eichelberger for the Senate. Whitt can hardly deliver himself, much less the good people of Cleburne. He wanted to go to the House or Senate from Cleburne, but neither the Democracy, the Third Party nor the Republicans wanted him.

Nobody has been kicked out of the Democratic party. Those who have followed Kolb off, have gone out of it voluntarily. Kolb would not even go before the State Democratic Convention. Democratic speakers all over the State are now out begging men to come back into the party and abandon Kolb and his Radical combination.

Candidates who have not yet paid for their announcements are requested to do so at once, or the same will be put out for collection. Terms for announcements are cash, but as a matter of accommodation some of the candidates were indulged for a few days. We ask them now to settle and not abuse a kindness by longer delay.

The Alliance Herald tries to fix the Gideon Band on the "Jones supporters." This won't work. Mr. Albritton says Parson Adams and State Lecturer Beck organized the band, and they have not denied it yet. The worst thing about this band is that men outside the Alliance were taken into it to boss the Alliance.

The nominees of the organized Democracy for the Legislature have offered to divide time with their competitors. Mr. Stephens has signified a willingness to enter into joint debate, we learn.

FELIX FOSTER.

Wout Accept a Nomination at The Hands of the Bolters, and is For Gov. Jones.

In an interview with a reporter of the Anniston Evening News, the 9th inst., Felix Foster had the following to say:

"I am not now and will not be a candidate for the legislature at the approaching election," said Mr. Foster, "although I have been repeatedly solicited by farmers in the county to become a candidate."

"Another thing I want to deny, and that is the inference left on the minds of many people that I stated to the Kolb men that if I was nominated by the county convention which met in Jacksonville on June 25th, that I would have to vote for Jones. I never made any such statement. When the Kolb men came to see me about that matter I told them that I had always voted for the nominees of the Democratic party, and that I would suffer the loss of my right arm rather than desert my principles, that if they could not vote for me upon these principles I would not change them to be chosen President of the United States, much less to be elected to the State legislature."

"There are qualities possessed by Col. Jones that I do not admire in a governor; there are principles advocated by Capt. Kolb which I do admire, but I regard Col. Jones as the Democratic nominee and as such I propose to support him."

A candidate who will misrepresent a fact, or his own position, to induce men to vote for him is unworthy of the support of any honest man.—Tuskegee News.

BOSSISM!

ITS SECRET SIGNS AND BADGE.

"Bossism."

That has been the rallying cry of the Kolb Klan for months and months.

They have made hundreds of people believe that the Democratic party was run by bosses and ringsters in antagonism to the interests of the people, and accordingly have tried to array as far as possible the masses in the country against the bosses in the towns.

But it has been developed that the Kolb crowd out-Herod Herod when it comes to bossing. They have organized within the secret Alliance another secret order for the confessed purpose of not merely bossing all classes outside the Alliance, but the Alliance itself. This ring of bosses turns out to be the most high-handed band of manipulators any political party has ever known.

It will be remembered that on June 29th the Advertiser printed a card from Mr. W. G. W. Albritton, of Wilcox, declaring that a "Gideon's Band" was organized in his store at Randolph, in Bibb County, by State Lecturer Beck of the Alliance, and that he joined the Band on the solicitation of President Adams. He declared that it was devised for bossing the politics of the county.

This card of Mr. Albritton's has caused a great sensation. Naturally the heaven is beginning to work, and much more of the existence and workings of the Band is coming to light.

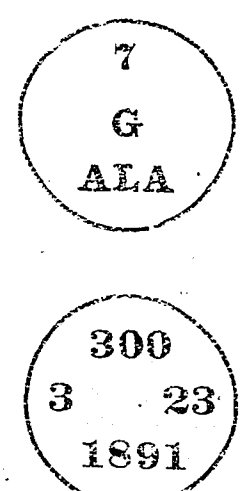

Hon. John A. Lusk, Solicitor of the 9th Circuit, was in the city yesterday. He stated that Mr. Albritton's card had attracted considerable attention up his way, and had brought to light some further information of the greatest value. Said Mr. Lusk:

"I have the fullest confirmation of Mr. Albritton's statements. There is a Gideon's Band in Marshall county, and from what I can gather in every county in the State also."

Is your source of confirmation authoritative and reliable, Mr. Lusk?

"Thoroughly so, I believe. I have it from a man who declares that he is one of the initiated, who is a reliable man. But here is a first-rate proof of the reliability of his statements."

Hereupon Mr. Lusk opened his pocket-book and handed the Advertiser what appeared to be a silver coin about the size of a half dollar. On closer inspection it was found to be plated brass or some sort of composite white metal. On each side were a lot of figures and letters stamped in raised characters, like the work on a coin. On one side were these characters: "7-G-ALA" on the other: "300-3-23-1891." These mystic symbols were arrayed in the following order on the obverse and reverse of the medal:

"That," said Mr. Lusk, "is the secret badge of the Band. My informant tells me that '7-G-ALA' means Gideon's Band in the 7th Alabama District, and that '300-3-23-1891' means the Biblical number of Gideon's Band—three hundred; organized in 1891; the 3 means three captains in the county, and the 23 means the twenty-three members in Marshall, one for each beat in the county."

Who did this man tell you organized the Band in your county?

"The late Col. J. L. Sheffield and Geo. C. Gaither, in the latter part of last year. C. T. Norton, who lives on Sand Mountain, about eight miles south of Guntersville is said to be one of the Captains."

Did he give you any of the other secrets of the Band?

"Oh, yes, he told me all about it, I reckon. He gave me the secret signs. When one member wishes to try another, he first lifts his tongue out of one corner of the mouth this way. (Mr. Lusk suited the action to the word by sticking his tongue out at the corner of his mouth in a peculiarly suggestive way.) If the person to be tested responds with the same sign, then the first member next cups his hand, sweeps it down and up, as if dipping up water, and then with the tongue indicates an attempt to lap it. The second person, if a member, responds with the same sign manner. Then the first proceeds from about his person the foregoing secret badge and exhibits it, to which the person being tested responds by producing its model. They are then ready for secret communications."

Did your informant tell you anything of the oath of initiation?

"Yes, he stated in substance that the oath is that each member is to carry out the directions and orders of the whole Band; that each member is to work to this end in the Alliance of his beat; and that all are to abide the orders of the three county captains as the final arbiters in all issues within the Band; that their work should be to control the politics of their county; that their existence, as well as work, was to be kept a secret from other Alliance members as well as outsiders."

Was there any penalty set for revelation of the secrets of the Band?

"Yes, he said that death is named as the penalty for revealing what he told me."

Did not this man revolt at the very idea of such an order?

"Well, he said that it was represented to him as simply another higher degree within the Alliance, to which only a few choice spirits were admitted, and that it was necessary to maintain this profound secrecy in order to rule the order efficiently. It would not do to let the rank and file know that there was an inner circle."

Have you got any evidence confirmatory of the statements of this member of Gideon's Band?

"Another Allianceman told me yesterday, after I had detailed the foregoing to him, that he had no doubt it was all true from an experience of his own. He stated that at last Fall's court in our county, an Allianceman exhibited to him a list of members in every beat in the county on which was his name, with the explanation that it was desired to select one good man in every beat to control the politics of the county. Notwithstanding this man's name was on the list, he declined to serve, and it was the last he heard of the thing. But this man said he remembered a number of the names on that list, and that some of the persons on it are now very active in the Alliance movement."

Have you heard of any corroborative evidence of all this from outside of Marshall County, besides that of Mr. Albritton?

"Yes, I have learned that Mr. W. J. Harmon, of Easonville, St. Clair County, during the recent judicial convention at Talladega, exhibited to Mr. H. G. Earnest, of Piedmont, a secret badge, just like the one I have shown you, except that it had '29' on it in place of the '27' on this, evidently referring to the number of beats in his county. Mr. Harmon said that it was the badge of a secret order."

Did you learn anything of the organization and working of the Band in the State at large? Do the county captains obey State colonels and brigadiers, and is there a Gideon?

"No, I heard nothing on that line, though I never took pains to inquire. I was told, however, that Kolb and Adams were both members."

So here are the details of the most compact and arbitrary secret ring of bosses ever devised for political manipulation. There is little doubt that every county has one of these inner circles of bosses within the Alliance, of which the rank and file has been kept profoundly ignorant. Its very existence has been made secret on penalty of death.

Doubtless if the names of many of these in various counties were known, the common masses of the common people in the order would rise up in wrath against their unworthy bossism. Many of them are probably utterly unfit in character, much less brain, to control their brethren in the Alliance, and to boss the making of states, and the general politics of the country. Numbers of them are in all likelihood persons who have been time and again repudiated by their neighbors as unfit for leadership, until they have become scoundrels, ripe and ready material for Kolb and the other State manipulators of the Band to use in their unholy movement against true Democracy, white supremacy and honest government.

Alliancemen who are good Democrats should inquire into this thing, and see who are the men Kolb has selected and put into this secret Band to lead them around by the noses. They will find that the cry of bossism by Kolb, his organ and speakers, is the boldest hypocrisy, concealing the most audacious system of bossism that can be conceived. Let good Democratic Alliancemen ferret out these Bands, and compare them in character, brain and record with the leading party men all around them and over the State, whom they have always respected and heard gladly. Then let them decide whether they shall carry out the arbitrary orders of this death penalty Band, or heed the counsel and wisdom of the strongest, purest, most patriotic Democrats in all the country.

In order that readers of this paper may better understand the term "Gideon's Band," which has been so profoundly distorted and prostituted by the Kolb Klan the following first eight verses of the 7th chapter of Judges are re-printed here:

"Then Jerubbaal, who is Gideon, and all the people that were with him, rose up early, and pitched beside the well of Harod; so that the host of the Midianites were on the north side of them, by the hill of Moreh, in the valley."

Second—And the Lord said unto Gideon, The people that are with thee are too many for me to give the Midianites into their hands, lest Israel vaunt themselves against me, saying, Mine own hand hath saved me."

Third—Now therefore go to, proclaim in the ears of the people, saying Whosoever is fearful and afraid, let him return and depart early from mount Harod. And there returned of the people twenty and two thousand; and there remained ten thousand."

Fourth—And the Lord said unto Gideon, The people are yet too many; bring them down unto the water; and I will try them for thee; and it shall be, that of whom I say unto thee, This shall go with me; and of whosoever I say unto thee, This shall not go with thee, the same shall not go."

Fifth—So he brought down the people unto the water; and the Lord said unto Gideon, Every one that lapped of the water with his tongue, as a dog lapped, him shalt thou set by himself; likewise every one that bowed down upon his knees to drink."

Sixth—And the number of them that lapped, putting their hand to their mouth, were three hundred men; but all the rest of the people bowed down upon their knees to drink water."

Seventh—And the Lord said unto Gideon, By the three hundred men that lapped will I save you, and deliver the Midianites into thine hand; and let all the other people go every man unto his place. Eighth—So the people took victuals in their hand, and their trumpets; and he sent all the rest of Israel every man unto his tent, and retained those three hundred men, and the host of Midian was beneath him in the valley."

Seventh—And the Lord said unto Gideon, By the three hundred men that lapped will I save you, and deliver the Midianites into thine hand; and let all the other people go every man unto his place. Eighth—So the people took victuals in their hand, and their trumpets; and he sent all the rest of Israel every man unto his tent, and retained those three hundred men, and the host of Midian was beneath him in the valley."

Young man, if you have any aspirations for the future, stand by your race in this political struggle.

Hon. L. W. Grant went to Cleburne to speak in the canvass in that county the middle of this week.

The Kolbits are on the run all over the State. Too much mixing of the races to suit the blue blooded white men of Alabama.

In another place we publish the appointments for speaking by the County Executive Committee up to the 23rd inst.

Rev. Mr. Ellis, an aged Methodist minister, well known throughout the State, has been writing some strong appeals through the press to voters to stand by the organized Democracy and save the State from ruin.

Seeing the damaging effect of it, Bowman has been trying to deny his Opelika speech; but many of the best men in Opelika certify that he said what was reported and more.
It has knocked voters off of Kolb by the score in every county of the State.

Kolb and his speakers say they are Democrats; but at the same time they won't say they will support the National Democratic ticket. What kind of Democrats are those who refuse to support the nominees of the Democratic party from President to county office? The test of a man's Democracy is in his support of its nominees.

All Calhoun knows Tyler Ledbetter. He is an honest and conscientious alliance man and farmer. He went to Montgomery during the State Convention and there went into one of Kolb's caucuses. There he heard hatched the scheme to beat white men in Alabama by the help of negro and Republican votes. He tells the public about it in a letter published elsewhere. Read it.

It has been well said that the organized Democracy wants the negro vote, because it is to the good both of the negro and the white man that he should vote; but it makes no deals with the leaders of the Republican party for the negro vote and don't promise anything to that party in November for the same. The organized Democracy is the natural foe of the Republican party and can make no deals with it.

Maj. W. P. Gorman was one of the most enthusiastic and energetic workers for Kolb before the State convention in the whole State. He spoke for him in many counties and would fight for him if necessary. He is an honest and truthful man and believed in Kolb. He has found out how he was mistaken in his man, and tells the public about it. We print extracts from a late speech of his in Jefferson county. Read it.

The letter of Kolb to Welch, published elsewhere from the Layette Sun, shows that Kolb was meditating treason to the Democratic party when he was most loudly declaring his purpose to abide the action of the State Convention. His Jefferson county platform which he read during his speeches declared in favor of the support of the nominees of the organized Democracy. Even while he was reading this platform, he was writing such letters as this one to Welch and laying the plans to disrupt the party.
How can a man be trusted who will thus double-deal with his supporters?

Mr. Welch was a supporter of Kolb until he got that letter. Then his eyes were opened and he dropped him. Kolb has acknowledged that he wrote the letter.

THE KOLB PLATFORM AND THE ALLIANCE DEMANDS.

One plank in the Kolb platform reads as follows:

"We favor the protection of capital by guaranteeing to every person or corporation equal protection with all other citizens, of the unquestioned right to do as they please with their own—all property bearing its equal share of taxation."

This is directly in conflict with the demands of the Ocala and St. Louis demands, which demand government control of railroads, telegraph and telephone lines, or in event they cannot be controlled, government ownership of the same.

Kolb's platform says they have the unquestioned right to do as they please with their own. The State allows railroad corporations extraordinary privileges. It gives to them its own right of eminent domain and allows them to condemn the property of private citizens to their own uses, no matter how strenuously the individual may object. This is done because they are regarded as of great public benefit. In return for this extraordinary grant of power, the Democratic theory is that the railroads owe something to the people in return and must not discriminate in freights or overcharge, or make the railroad a burden and nuisance rather than a benefit. But Kolb's platform flies in the face of the Democratic and Alliance doctrine on this point and says in effect "let the railroads have power to take the land of the farmer without his consent, let them charge him whatever they please when he travels or ships his cotton on their lines, let them give him good service or bad service for his money, it is no business of the State; they have the unquestioned right to do as they please with their own." The Alliance Herald tries to break the force of this by saying the declaration of the Kolb platform on this head is only the assertion of a common law right. Maybe so, but the Democratic party has gone beyond the common law and has by statute law controlled corporations in the interest of the people. For this reason railroad commissions were made and numerous laws passed holding corporations to just reason-ability for their acts. So also have the working people in the mines and shops of corporations of a different character been protected and the corporations held to a strict accountability to them under Democratic law.
But Mr. Kolb says in his platform this is all wrong; that corporations have the questioned right to do as they please with their own. The last State Legislature did not so hold when it passed the bill appointing a State Inspector of mines, whose duty it should be to require mining corporations to provide for the safety and health of the miners. Read Kolb's platform on this head and then read the declaration of the Democratic and Alliance platform.

"We favor such further legislation as will better regulate corporations chartered by the State."

The Alliance Herald tries to break the force of this by asking "how better regulate," and complains that the platform did not set out a detailed statement of how it was to be done.
Platforms are the enunciation of gen-
legislation. None know this better than the Herald. It presumes on the ignorance of its readers when it asks the question. The Democratic party has already shown how in the case of the railroads and mines and declares its purpose to improve on these.

The Democratic party will never endorse the vicious principle that corporations, which derive their power from the State, are above regulation, by the State. The people have some rights which Mr. Kolb don't seem to respect.

Circuit Clerk, Willis W. Curry, of Marshall county has published an open letter to the people of Marshall county giving his reasons for abandoning the support of Kolb. When the National Democratic Convention recognized the delegates sent by the Radicals to the State, he recognized the Democracy of the State, he recognized the Democracy of the State, he could only accept the result.

He quits Kolb also because the Republicans are all flocking to his standard. The Republicans do not support pure Democracy when they can find any of the spurious element to support. The very fact that the Radicals are supporting Kolb, proves that they regard the Jones element as the Democratic party of the State.
Mr. Willis Curry reasons right about the matter. He says many true and tried Democrats in Marshall agree with him and are leaving Kolb's standard.

The canvass was formally opened by Messrs. Williams and Morris, nominees for the Legislature of the the organized Democracy, at Four Mile church in June Bug beat Monday. A good crowd greeted the speakers and they made a most favorable impression. Although invited to attend, their opponents did not put in an appearance. Is it possible they are afraid to discuss their principles in public, where they can be answered? After the nominees had spoken Messrs. Agee and McGee of Anniston, Rev. D. B. Turner of that bent, and L. W. Grant, of Jacksonville, were called out, and made short speeches. Beat 3 is all right for the nominees.

Annis-ton has registered 1649 names and will vote nearly solid for Jones.
The majority for Jones in the county will be not less than one thousand.

Suppose that some man, Gov. Jones for instance, should advise the organized Democrats of Calhoun not to go out to hear Kolb speakers. Don't you think they would resent it? Don't you know that Gov. Jones would be quickly told he was dealing with free white men who generally exercised their own free judgment as to whom they would hear speak? Kolb's organ advises his followers to stay away from Democratic speakers and the great mass of them obey; and yet these gentlemen have the cheek to talk about "bossism."

Cunningham beat voters in Perry county have flocked solidly from Kolb to Jones. We print their resolu-tions in another column.

Kolb's deal with the negroes and Republicans have done the work in Perry, as it is doing the work in Calhoun and all over the State. People don't want to see any more mongrel parties in Alabama, with the bad government, high taxes, mixed schools, public plunder and general demoralization which such a condition entails.

No man in the State has been more prominent in alliance circles than John W. Pitts, of Shelby county. He is the father of the third party in Shelby. Now comes his son-in-law, Wm. H. Kidd, the present tax assessor of the county, who has been training with Pitts, and denounces the Third party and Kolbism. He has been behind the scenes and has become alarmed at the tendency of the movement. And so good men are doing all over the State. The Kolb movement will be a mighty small affair by election day.

It has developed now that it is Kolb's plan to set up a Legislature of his own, when he is beaten at the election, as he set up a convention of his own when beaten for the nomination. He hopes to have Federal bayonets come into Alabama to settle the dispute. What sort of a Demo-cratic is the man who would thus ac-cept the governorship at the hands of President Harrison, with all the obligation that such acceptance im-plies? Do you want to invite Federal soldiers to the State by your vote? If so vote for Kolb.

The Gideon band bosses are doing all they can to keep their followers from hearing speeches from organized Democrats or reading organized Democratic newspapers. But many of them wear no collar and remem-ber that they are free white men, and go out to hear whom they please and read whatever newspapers they please. The very attempt to keep their followers away from speaking is an acknowledgment by the Gid-eonites that their principles will not stand the test of honest discussion.

On the contrary the organized De-mocracy invites discussion and offers to divide time with the Kolbits. Democracy has no secrets and pro-fesses no principle it is not willing to defend in the presence of the world.

Two years ago, owing to the dis-satisfaction growing out of the action of the State Convention, large numbers of Democrats in the country beats of Calhoun did not vote for Jones, and the result was that in the county con-vention the country did not have the number of delegates it would have otherwise had and the county had only eight votes in the State Con-vention when it should have had twelve to sixteen. This election promises to be worse in this respect than the last, and to this point we wish to direct the attention of the country people. The towns in the county are going to vote almost solidly for Jones. If the country votes largely for Kolb, the towns will control the next county convention. Now, Kolb is a dead duck. No well informed man in the State believes he will come within twenty-five thousand votes of elec-tion. Why then throw away your votes on him and thus deprive your beat of its just strength in the coming conventions of the party?

A Coming Politician.

A Kolb supporter, writing to the Talladega Mountain Home of the recent grand alliance-Kolb rally in Talladega county, thus speaks of the incident that has attracted so much attention throughout the State. He says there were five hundred present including women, children and the colored people. After noting the speeches of W. H. Skerags and Mr. Bowman, and after informing the public that "we had a grand time—a regular levee feast, you might say," he thus speaks of a negro who was permitted to speak to the wives and daughters of the farmers of Tal-ladega:

"After dinner we were addressed by the young colored orator from the city of Talladega, Mr. Allen. Mr. Allen is an intelligent young colored man, who was educated at the Tal-ladega colored college. He is a very bright young man and made a splen-did speech, which all seemed to en-joy very much. As many colored people were present they were of course given the front seats, as this speech was for their special benefit. Yet his speech was listened to very attentively by both white and colored, and was well received by all, judging from the applause given him by both white and colored. Mr. Allen is a rising young man and will yet make a mark in the world. I will venture to say he is one of the coming politicians of our county."

On the fourth page we print the ad-dress of the Executive Committee of Walker county to the voters of that county. It shows clearly the absurd-ity of Kolb's claim that he is the nominee of the Democratic party.

Speaking at Peaceburg.

The speaking and pic-nic at Peace-burg was attended by several hun-dred people. The nominees of the organized Democracy for the Legis-lature spoke and made a fine impres-sion. The Kolbit candidates were not on hand, though there is a stand-ing invitation in the notice of ap-pointments for them to participate.

Rev. Dan Williams, a Kolbite, was permitted to speak, though it was a Jones gathering. The Jones men are for discussion. Messrs J. J. Willett, J. M. Caldwell, Benj. Micou and Solicitor Martin also spoke, and great good was effected.

Why do the Kolb men shrink dis-cussion. If they have a good cause they should not be ashamed to de-fend it in any presence. Never be-fore in the history of this county have candidates of any party refused to meet the nominees of the Demo-cracy when invited.

Williams and Morris are going to be elected to the Legislature by a bigger majority than has ever been given to a Democratic nominee in Calhoun. They are for the interests of the whole county and announce they will put no local law upon the people to which they object. But better than this they represent the organized Democracy, which stands for the preservation of the public interest and the protection of our wives and children from the de-grading influences of a mongrel gov-ernment.

The REPUBLICAN has always held that the great bulk of the alliance men in Calhoun county are true Demo-crats who want to do right; and we won't believe otherwise until we have seen them walk up to the polls in August and vote for the disruption of the Democratic party by voting for Kolb.

Mr. Albritton says the alliance Herald knows more of Gideon band than it cares to confess, and he challenges Mr. Adams to deny that he was one of the organizers of the band of bosses in the State.

BOWMAN'S OPELIKA SPEECH.

"WORSE THAN ANY IN THE RAPID-CAL DAYS."

McIver reiterates his report, and is sustained by numbers of Promi-nent Opelika Citizens.

MONTGOMERY, July 14.—The fol-lowing card will appear in the Ad-vertiser tomorrow morning:

The following appeared in the Kolb organ of this city yesterday morn-ing:

"Birmingham, July 13.—Publish in your next issue that McIver's re-port of my speech at Opelika, which was printed in the Montgomery Ad-vertiser is a willful and malicious lie."

"(Signed) C. Bowman."

I do not care to bandy words with Mr. Bowman and in the newspaper controversy to refer only to that as-pect of the case with which the peo-ple have to do. I went to Opelika in the discharge of my duty as the Ad-vertiser representative to make a report of the speech of the speaker, and while some who composed the Kolb wing seemed to be very nice men, a majority of them would not bear comparison with the Jones delegates who urged the importance of the triumph of true Democracy and I heard the friends of Kolb at his headquarters and in his caucuses, denounce me and say that he must be treated by any means, and declaring that with the aid of negroes and Re-publicans he could easily be elected.

MIXING.

A Negro had put up to Entertain White Ladies and Gentlemen in Talladega County. What Kolbits Lead To.

Talladega, Ala., July 16.—At an Alliance barbeque, held at Regan's, twelve miles from Talladega, to-day, 1,800 people were present, including a large concourse of ladies.

Just previous to dinner and after Bowman's speech, Colonel Elliott announced that there would be speaking after dinner by other gentlemen present, and promptly after dinner the white people and white ladies present were razzed with a windy harangue from Tom Allen, a young negro of Talladega, who was introduced by the Alliance representative.

Dr. Groce and Longshore were present, but had only a few minutes to speak, as the negro occupied the time that might have been allotted to these white alliance orators.

This was the boss rally of the alliance in this section, and it was held near the home of Col. J. K. Elliott, a leading member of the alliance and Chairman of the Kolb County Executive Committee.

This is the first time in the history of this lovely mountain home of the bluest-blooded Caucasians of Alabama that a negro has dared to address a gathering of white ladies and gentlemen.

About fifty negroes were present in a white crowd of over 1,500, and they evidently thought that at last "De white rail was on top."

In proud Talladega an alliance gathering put up a negro to address their wives and daughters.

The better elements of the Regan gathering deprecated the negroes speaking, but the Gideon Band crowd led him on for sixty or more minutes.

To the Democrats of Calhoun County.

As the Democrats of Calhoun county are demanding from the various candidates for local offices an expression as to their standing in relation to the gubernatorial contest and as I think I owe this much to myself and my friends, I therefore request space in your columns to say publicly what I have always said privately, that I know no party except Democracy and no candidate for governor save its nominee, Gov. Thos. G. Jones.

This is a time in our political history when every true Democrat can certainly see the danger threatening our State. Since the days of reconstruction there has been no time more important for true Democracy to stand in line. The continuation of Democratic government in Alabama is far more important to the people of Calhoun county than the election of any man or men to any office and every true Democrat will sacrifice individual interests and preferences for the common good and rally as one man to the rescue of that party, which redeemed our State from misrule, saved her from ruin and blessed us for more than twenty years with a wise and conservative administration, and gave us peace and prosperity at home and character abroad. Now let each and every man exert himself, and the grand old county of Calhoun will on the first of August, roll up a handsome majority for Thos. G. Jones, the standard bearer of true Democracy.

INCENDIARY TALK.

The Chairman of the Kolb State Executive Committee Talks Blood to the Negroes—And Goes Farther Than Any Radical Has Ever Dared to Do.

At a Kolb speaking at Opelika July 12th, after Kolb had concluded a speech, in which he discussed the possibility of the negroes being counted out, in the presence of 500 negroes and as many white people, Be nan, the Birmingham lawyer, who is Chairman of the Kolb State Executive Committee, took the stand. In the course of a bitter speech, addressing the 500 negroes he said:

"I tell you what we will do—the Kolb men will have a committee at each polling place who will keep an account of your ballot. Vote it openly, say you are voting for a free ballot and a fair count. am in favor of letting them say if they don't count it right. They have said that we can't win this fight if we don't go over their dead bodies. I for one am willing to have them go over my dead body to secure you in the right of voting for whom you please and of casting your ballots unmolested. I had rather see Mobile Bay filled with Pinkerton's detectives, the backs of every river and creek in Alabama lined with Federal bayonets and crimson with blood, rather than see you deprived of the privilege of voting for whom you please.

Let the colored man stand up for his race and vote for a free ballot and civil liberty. The inspector who attempts to swindle or make a miscount in the coming election, will have the biggest job he ever undertook. I am here without hope of reward and am speaking for Kolb because I think it my duty to do it. Go to the polls and strike for your rights and civil liberty. If you don't they will soon have you back in worse than slavery again. If you don't strike now, they will soon have all the rights and nothing will be left to you."

The latest Fashion Plates the suits with bound and stitched edges, plain or silk facings. You read of these things—naturally you look for them when you "set out" to buy a suit. You'll FIND 'EM HERE—all of them, in chevots, plain black and light shades, tweeds, cassimers and worsteds, cut in the scale of lengths that are proper. Plain weaves and wide wales. The linings and trimmings are as carefully selected and put in place as the outside finishings. We're not ashamed to have you look our suits through and through. We're conscious they're all right.

Straight as a thread through the eye of a needle we have entered into every phase of Suit Fashion. When you make a change with US this Spring it will be for the better. We have "shaved" the price until only a tissue of profits covers the cost. Our line of cheapness has been drawn at $10.00 worth weighs light below that price. Up to $35.00 quality grows with every dollar. THERE is the highest preference. Judge us as you find us. The sacks and three and four button cutaway frocks, made up in "wood brown," chevots, black tibets, fancy cassimers, clay's worsteds, etrick, tweeds, english homespuns, &c. Give us a variety that no three houses can combine and equal. Don't fear of the fit that is perfect beyond improvement. Our aim has been to give you the biggest money's worth you have ever had—and we have succeeded. Success piles upon success.

WORK IN CONGRESS.

THE MOST IMPORTANT MATTERS CULLED AND CONDENSED.

Notable Events in the Legislative and Executive Branches of the National Government.

Monday.
WASHINGTON, July 28.—In the house, the following bills were passed under suspension of the rules: For the relief of the estate of William McGarran, to certain estates in California; authorizing the secretary of the treasury to provide for the erection of public buildings; the senate joint resolution, authorizing the committee on labor to make investigation of the slums of cities.

Tuesday.
WASHINGTON, July 28.—The house, today, refused to appropriate $5,000,000 for the World's Fair, but the vote upon the senate amendment to the sundry civil bill, making this appropriation, was closer than had been anticipated. It was 169 to 161, or twelve majority against the appropriation. The house adopted the senate amendment providing for the closing of the fair on Sundays. The World's Fair appropriation was the main point of discussion in the sundry civil bill, and as soon as this was disposed of the house disposed of the bill by asking a conference of the senate on its amendment.

Wednesday.
WASHINGTON, July 29.—In the house, upon a suspension of the regular rules, the senate bill, providing for holding terms of the district court for the eastern district of South Carolina, was passed.

H. C. FRICK SHOT.

Three Bullets in the Body of Carnegie's Manager.

Pittsburg, July 21.—H. C. Frick, chairman of the Carnegie Steel company has just been shot. The young man who shot Frick is now under arrest. Three shots were fired. All took effect, one in the neck, two in the back near the right side just above the hip. His assailant was badly used up, and it is evident a hard fight occurred. The man was placed under arrest, and is now in the central police station. He is a young man, smooth faced, tall and slender. His home has not yet been ascertained.

One of the clerks in Frick's office says Frick is very badly shot, but it can not now be ascertained whether the injuries are necessarily fatal. There is intense excitement, and it is exceedingly difficult to obtain the particulars.

The Attack.
Pittsburg, July 21.—H. C. Frick slept well during the night and rested easily during Sunday. His temperature is ninety and he seems to be quite cheerful and confident of his recovery. A curious thing was that another cut was discovered, which was making in the examination made Saturday. It is in the left leg just below the calf and has almost severed the tendons. He complained of a pain in the leg, but his attendants imagined that it was of other wounds he spoke. It was, of course, carefully dressed and relief followed.

Particulars of the Shooting.
The circumstances attending the shooting are related as follows: Ten minutes before 9 o'clock in the afternoon, a dark complexioned young man with a Jewish cast of countenance, of medium height and fairly well dressed, entered the elevator in the Chronicle-Telegraph building, which is also occupied by the Carnegie Steel company, limited, and asked to be let off at Mr. Frick's office.

The young man had been a frequent visitor during the past few days, and David Forney, the elevator boy, thought nothing of the request, but stopped at the second floor and pointed out the way to the chairman's private room. Two minutes later the occupants of the building had passed by on Fifth avenue were startled by three pistol shots, fired in rapid succession. Intuitively the victim was divined and "Frick is shot" were the words soon passing from mouth to mouth on the street. It was true. The man, believed to be a crank, had assaulted the great steel master, but he received two bullet wounds and four ugly gashes from a dagger, still lives and will probably recover.

The office of Mr. Leishman, business partner of Frick, adjoins that of the chairman. Mr. Leishman came in and the two were holding a private conference, no one else being in the room. A few minutes before 2 o'clock, the office boy, noticed a man hastily push open the swinging door in the railing that runs between the public portion and the enclosure where the desks of the stenographers and clerks are located. There was no one near the private office door and the boy hurried up to ask the intruder what he wanted, but he was too late, as the stranger had passed nearly to the private apartment. As he entered the office Mr. Frick looked up, as did also Mr. Leishman, to see who it was. Mr. Frick was examining a bundle of papers.

The man sprang within about five feet of Mr. Frick, and drawing his revolver, pulled the trigger. The first cartridge did not explode; the second shot entered the back of Mr. Frick's neck, and, glancing downward, passed to the outside below the armpit. Mr. Frick made an exclamation and jumped to the circular window on Fifth avenue and tried to open it. The window was closed, and he was unable to do so. He then turned to the desk, and, approaching close to Mr. Frick, fired again. The ball entered the muscle on the left side of the neck and passed around to a loquacious man, where it was later reached by a probe.

At this instant Mr. Leishman threw himself on the would-be assassin and wrestled for the possession of the revolver. Mr. Leishman clutched the barrel and turned the muzzle upward as the cartridge exploded, the ball entering the plastering near the glass partition. With agility the desperate man drew a dagger and attempted to stab Mr. Leishman, who was holding the assailant by the shoulders and body.

Mr. Frick saw the gleam of the steel, and although staggered by the shock of the wound and bleeding profusely, jumped between the man and seized the man's arm. The latter freed himself from Mr. Leishman's grasp and plunged the dagger into the right side of the man's back, just above the hip, making an ugly wound, three inches long. He made another lunge, this time the knife striking higher up, but the point struck a rib and glanced down, without inflicting much injury.

Twice again the knife thrust at Mr. Frick, but he was unable to strike. The three last attempts to kill him. The man broke away and tried to escape. At this time the office boy and Deputy Sheriff May, who just entered the office as the first shot was fired, threw themselves on the assassin. Mr. May had drawn his revolver and was about to shoot the fellow in the back, when Mr. Frick cried out:

GEORGIA PEOPLE'S PARTY.

The Convention in Atlanta Puts On a Full Ticket.

ATLANTA, July 21.—The People's party convention was called to order by C. C. Post, chairman of the provisional committee, at a few minutes after 10 o'clock. Mr. Post introduced the proceedings by stating that this was a meeting under peculiar circumstances. They had met to nominate men to antagonize for office that party with which it had been their custom to affiliate for years.

They would also select presidential electors, who, if elected, would cast the vote of Georgia for a man who did not belong in the ranks of the party which Georgia's electors had supported for years.

He concluded his remarks by announcing that the committee on temporary organization had presented the name of M. L. Branch, of Columbia county, as chairman, and the names of Oscar Parker, of Fulton, and W. A. Eckard, of Clinch, for temporary secretaries.

Mr. Branch, upon assuming the gavel, reviewed the rise and progress of the party for the past four years, from a mere possibility then, to the sound, solid reality of the present.

His closing remarks were in the nature of a prophetic vision, in which Gordon, Colquhoun, Northern and others were seen going to the rear, and Tom Watson, the little David of the party, leading the great host, and who will lead his party to victory if they are only loyal to him.

On motion of Mr. Barrett, of Richmond, two committees, consisting of one from each district, were appointed, one being the committee on credentials and the other being the committee on platform.

After a recess until 1 o'clock, the people's platform convention resumed, and the report of the credentials and platform committees announced ready. The chairman of the credentials committee found no contest, and so reported.

C. C. Post was made permanent chairman, and Oscar Parker and M. D. Irwin elected secretaries.

Hon. W. L. Peek, of DeKalb county, was nominated by acclamation for governor.

W. R. Gorman, of Talbot county, was nominated for secretary of state.

THE NOTIFICATION.

GRAND GATHERING OF DEMOCRATS IN NEW YORK.

Notified of Their Selection.
A Vast Crowd Present.

NEW YORK, July 23.—Grover Cleveland and Adlai Stevenson were officially notified that they are the choice of the Democracy of this great country to lead the party to victory or defeat.

Mr. Stevenson was the first to appear, but Mr. Cleveland soon followed. After waiting some time for an opportunity to be heard, and for the crowd of applauders to subside, Mr. Cleveland arose and Mr. Wilson notified him in a speech of ten minutes' duration that he had been nominated for the presidency.

Mr. Cleveland replied in a speech of ten minutes' duration, in which he expressed his appreciation of the honor conferred upon him, and his confidence in the Democratic party.

He then turned to the people and said: "I am not a politician, but I am a citizen, and I am proud to be the choice of my fellow citizens. I will do my best to serve them, and I will do my best to serve the country."

He then turned to the people and said: "I am not a politician, but I am a citizen, and I am proud to be the choice of my fellow citizens. I will do my best to serve them, and I will do my best to serve the country."

What do you think of a cause that avoids discussion?

Many good men are turning from Kob to Jones. They will never regret it.

Will you vote for men who will not meet their opponents on the stump and discuss political issues before the people.

It is easy enough to be for Jones after his friends have whipped the fight. Where were you when the issue was doubtful.

The colored people of this beat met in the court house Thursday night and unanimously resolved to support Gov. Jones.

The Democracy wants no trimmers, cowards or camp followers.
Vote for bold men who have not been afraid to speak out for the party when it was in peril.

There are men now howling loudest for Jones who would have been howling just as loudly for Kob if the tide of battle had gone in his favor.
Out upon such time-servers.

Hon. W. A. Porter, nominee for Senator of the district composed of Calhoun and Cleburne, will speak in the court house at Jacksonville, Saturday, July 30th, at 2 o'clock, p. m.

The people of Calhoun, white and black, want no strife and rivers of blood and armed men at the polls as Bully Bowman advises. They are going to vote for Jones and peace and prosperity and a reign of law and leave Bloody Bowman and his man Kob to bitter reflection over their abortive attempt to disrupt the Democracy and inaugurate a race war.

Dr. W. W. McMillan, of Monroe county, nominated for senator by the Koblites some time ago, addressed a Kob meeting the other day, resigned the honor, and declared for Jones and organized democracy.
The doctor said: "I never could become an independent. By education, association and principle I always supported organized democracy, hence I could not accept the nomination." This is only one of many instances of refusals to follow Kob out of the convention.

All the flood sufferers in Marion and Greene counties are farmers and the greater part of them are negroes; but big-hearted Governor Jones appealed to the people of the State for them and money is going to their relief from every city and town in the State. Yet the farmers and negroes whomwork on the farms are being taught by Kob orators to believe that Gov. Jones and the people of the cities and towns are enemies of the farmers.
If Gov. Jones cared nothing for these suffering people why did he use the influence of his high office to procure relief for them? Think of this before you vote.

In a secret, circular Bowman, Kob's manager, advises the Kob challengers to go to the polls armed.
This is his idea of a free election in this free land. Because he is a shed-der of blood, he thinks other men are also. He will learn that the law loving people of Alabama will not regard his counsel. We have no need of arms at the polls. We are all friends and brothers and can settle this election as we have others since 1871, by the peaceful method of the ballot.
Bowman would make widows and orphans and light the torch of the inferno, and kindle the fires of hell in the breasts of the negro race to make Kob Governor; but he will fail. The people love peace and the law better than they love Kob.

BOSSISM.

The Kob orators have been howling against what they are pleased to term "bossism" all over the State.
It is their stock in trade. Every man whom the people have honored and elected to office, or who has been conspicuous in the councils of the Democratic party, or who has taken a large degree of interest in public affairs has been classed as one of the "bosses" and the people have been warned against him as if he were a public enemy.

At the same time no body of men in the State have been so completely "bossed" as have been the rank and file of Kob's supporters. They were induced to join the alliance under the false pretense that it could not become a secret political party. In violation of good faith a political platform was formulated at Ocala by the leaders of the movement and the rank and file were dragged into its support against their will. County alliances pledged them over and over to stand on the demands and vote for no man who would not favor them; thus virtually separating them from their party associates and laying the foundation for the Third Party, which now exists with those demands for its platform. Kob, Adams & Co., rode the rank and file and ever an independent thinking alliance man kicked he was at once labeled. They even set themselves above criticism and the rank and file of the order were taught that any abuse or criticism of its leaders by a free press was an attack upon the order. Then began the work of boycotting men and newspapers who criticized the action of the leaders or the order. If these leaders could have done so they would have stifled free discussion and freedom of the press. When newspapers continued to expose the fallacies of the demands or the rottenness or dishonesty of the leaders, and when speakers went out to tell the people the truth, these bosses advised the rank and file not to read the one or go to hear the other, and thousands of them bowed their necks to the yoke meekly and submitted. Having gotten things in this shape, Gideon's band was organized and the wild hunt for office began and every little boss in the order cropped out as a candidate for something. Too many of them came to suit the purposes of the leaders and now the work of thinning them out is going on. In this county a half dozen Gideonites met in Anniston and decided who the alliance men should support for county office.

These jugglers determined to keep the result of their agreement secret, from the rank and file of the order and on the day of election circulate tickets for alliance men to vote with only the names of the favorites of the bosses upon it. How is this for bossism? What right has Quinn & Co., to take men down and put men up for the support of the free voters of Calhoun? Following this action the County Executive Committee was requested to take down some of the candidates among the organized Democrats. What did it do? It met and determined it had no right to bring one man down and leave another up, and yet that committee was composed of the constituted authorities of a great political party. The agents of the Democratic party in Calhoun would not dare to offer a ticket of their own making to the free voters of the county and say to them you must vote this or none; yet that is what Quinn & Co., have done. The Democracy only puts up candidates by convention of the people where every voter has the right to express a preference in the primaries. The Gideonites, to the number of six, in Calhoun, present a ticket to the alliance men and say to them insolently "here is your ticket, vote it. True you have not been consulted but, your bosses, know what is best for you."

Who is it that is bossed in Calhoun?
Monday will close the exciting political contest in this State. We sicerely trust it may be passed without riot and bloodshed, and that with all animosities engendered during the campaign. Good men will vote on both sides, and after the people have decided the issue it is the duty of these good men to bury the past and get speedily together. The canvass has developed some time-servers and cowards on both sides and here and there a traitor to one or both. These will be held in equal detestation by both sides; but the great rank and file of each side have boldly and openly stood by their convictions and fought an open fight. Where honest conviction has gone hand in hand with political action on either side, the opposite side can respect it, and we repeat there is no good reason why these brave and honorable men may not at once come together for the good of the State. Jones will win the fight. Let his friends indulge in no undue exultation over the men who have stood by Kob from honest conviction. It is always becoming in the victor to be generous. It is well for the State that such should be the case in this instance.

Chairman Bowman's address to Kob supporters throughout the State is to carry their ballots above their heads as they go to the polls so that they may be seen at all times until deposited.
This will be a pretty spectacle! Freemen carrying ballots aloft so that they may be effectively watched by five Kob challengers, at the behest of one man in the State, will be an exhibition of subservience to boss rule such as has never before been seen in Alabama.

State Lecturer Tucker says the Alliance in Tennessee has dwindled from 27,000 members to 6,000 since its first organization. He also says that McDowell will carry about 2,000 of these men to the People's party with
him. Continuing, Mr. Tucker makes the estimate that there are about 2,000 discontented laborers in the cities, who will swell the total vote for the People's party to something like 5,000 votes. Mr. Tucker says he will burn his right arm off before he will join

Public Speaking in Jacksonville.

Thursday Messrs. J. H. King, J. B. Knox and T. G. Bush, of Anniston, filled the appointment made for them at this place, by the County Executive Committee.

A good audience of ladies and gentlemen greeted the speakers, and great enthusiasm prevailed throughout the meeting.
Mr. King opened the discussion with an admirable speech, in which he told the story of the Chicago Convention which nominated Cleveland.
He dwelt at length on the tariff robbery and presented unanswerable arguments against that iniquity. He closed by touching upon State issues and made a grand appeal for the farmers of the Black Belt who were to suffer from the revolutionary teachings of Bowman and Kob. He was frequently applauded and made an excellent impression on his audience.

T. G. Bush followed in a speech of more than an hour's length, from the standpoint of a business man, who desired no office, but who had the welfare of the people of all occupations at heart. He reviewed the acts of Democratic lawmakers in the interest of the farmers and working men and showed beyond a shadow of doubt that the Democratic party was the only friend to the masses of the people. His spoke kindly and temperately throughout, and sometimes rose to eloquence by reason of his intense earnestness and evident honesty of statement. He was applauded throughout. His speech was pronounced to be one of the very finest that has been delivered here since the opening of the campaign.

Mr. John B. Knox closed the discussion in a speech replete with polished phrases, solid facts, and unanswerable arguments. His style of delivery is easy and captivating, and more than once when he indulged in apt quotation or gave way to an outburst of feeling or nailed the opposition by the statement of a damaging fact, there was spontaneous and hearty applause. His rendition of Longfellow's fine poem, beginning with

"Sail on thou ship of State" as apropos to one of Mr. King's fine figures of speech, was very effective, the manner of its delivery bringing out fully the beauty and majesty of the poem. When he answered the argument that the 13th plank of the Democratic platform meant disfranchisement to voters, by the statement that it took a change in the constitution to do this and that the Convention which nominated Jones had voted down a proposition to call a constitutional convention, the cleverness of the point was at once seen by the audience and answered by applause. And so it was in his discussion of Kob's claims of mistreatment in the two conventions.
He left him not one inch to stand upon. It was a strong and forcible speech and did much good. The speakers were happily introduced by Major Arnold, and altogether it was a good day for Democracy in Jacksonville.

BOWMAN.

What his Home Paper Thinks of Him.
The Freeman, a People's party paper, published at Sumter, S. C., the place from whence Bowman came to Alabama, has this to say him:
"Sumter's old post, P. G. Bowman, Esq., is running the alliance campaign in Alabama. God have mercy upon any good cause entrusted to P.
G. Bowman's leadership! Reformers are often led by unworthy men, especially in their earliest stages, but when such men as Bowman get at the head of affairs, horrible evils are in full sight. We have our trials, as reformers, on account of unscrupulous leadership in this county and State; but nothing quite so bad as Bowman has seized upon us yet, we believe."

Farmers of Calhoun are you prepared to follow this South Carolina
"pest" outside the Democratic party?
Even the third party people of South Carolina can pity Democrats under such a leadership. Do you think this carpet-bagger, with his incendiary talk and his rivers of blood is a safe guide? Leave him and his strife-breeding crowd alone.

One of the speakers here Thursday stated that Rev. D. P. Williams, one of the Kob leaders in this county when asked whether he would or would not attend the Jones speaking at Alexandria a day or two previous replied: "Yes, I will attend, but my people shall not." Who gave Mr. Williams authority to control the acts of free men in this free country? Yet, the Kob crowd talk about bossism.

The champions of the People's party in Tennessee. Almost every one of their congressional lecturers will stamp their districts for the "new reform" aggregation. They are putting out candidates for the Legislature in thirty-two counties of the State, four candidates for Congress in the ten districts, who are already announced, and as soon as the lands announce their willingness to be slaughtered others will be put out.
Robertson and McDowell, the two State electors, will begin an active canvass next week.—Chattanooga Times.

State Lecturer Tucker says the Alliance in Tennessee has dwindled
first organization. He also says that McDowell will carry about 2,000 of
him. Continuing, Mr. Tucker makes
discontented laborers in the cities, who
will swell the total vote for the People's party to something like 5,000
votes. Mr. Tucker says he will burn
his right arm off before he will join

TRAITOR TO DEMOCRACY.

W. P. Gorman's Opinion of Kob after a Continued Association With Him.
BIRMINGHAM, July 16.—A big Jones rally was held at Bellone Academy Jonesville, last night.
In a speech Maj. W. P. Gorman said that he had possibly been nearer Kob before the convention than either of his predecessors, and that he had found him a traitor to himself and to Democracy; and we, his supporters, though vilified by the press, jeered and hissed by small politicians and eminent statesmen for having followed him, then exercised the same rights as members of the party as our traducers did, and we now perform the same duties.
He said Maine was defeated and Harrison nominated on the Force bill issue; that Harrison's nomination was due to the Southern States, and that Bowman, Kob & Co., were in line with them. It is evident where the money comes from for their campaign.

What was Bowman's business in Washington? He went there to sell us to the Republicans through Mr. McKim. (Interrupted by Colonel Fulton, "do you know that to be a fact?" When Major Gorman attempted to reply he insinuated that Fulton was a Kob man, and Fulton instantly corrected him, saying "I was for Jones when you were for Kob." (Cheers.) And attorney Parsons said to me: "We sent the wrong man."

His arraignment of Mr. Bowman was severe and was heartily applauded.
Kob told me that if the Republican Party should tender him the Governor's nomination in a silver platter he would not accept it, nor would he accept it from any other source than organized Democracy.
At this juncture he criticised the Kob platform, especially on account of the omission of any reference to the Force bill. Captain Kob or some of his friends rented the Open House in Montgomery six weeks before the Convention. On my return with him from Lee County, he told me one night at 12 o'clock that he would go into the Convention and make the fight. On the next morning he gave me reason to believe that he was going to bolt, and then I left him. Kob called a mass meeting of his supporters in Montgomery and Bowman called the Convention.

Next he discussed the Guice circular, and stated that Kob when he read the circular in Tuscaloosa County, raised his right hand and said: "I swear by the high heavens it is a lie," and he explained to me that his partner did it. Now he told a falsehood to the people, and Captain Kob swore a lie to me. He then recapitulated his personal and political reasons for not supporting Kob and his reasons for voting for Jones. Major Gorman was frequently applauded and his listeners were especially attentive.

IRRESISTIBLE ARGUMENT.

How Dr. Ayers Outwitted the Kob Men at Selphur Springs.
Dr. T. W. Ayers, of Jacksonville, certainly got the best of the crowd of Kob men up in Selphur Springs last Monday. He has been a most conservative man and has done nothing to offend them. Consequently when he arose to speak to them they were willing to hear. He began to read a platform, section by section, elucidating it thoroughly.
He would then appeal to the farmers and ask them if that plank was not good enough for them. "Yes, yes," they replied. He would then take up another plank, go through the same process, and get the same favorable response. The entire platform was gone through in this way, and then he held up the printed slip before them and asked them if they could not endorse it. "Yes, yes," they replied. "That's what we want," said the replies from the crowd.
"Well, then, I am glad indeed of it," said the adroit Doctor, "for I have read you every word of the Jones platform."

The good farmers were too badly outwitted for utterance. They thought all the while that the Kob platform was being read to them.— Anniston Hot Blast.
The county alliance in electing its officers for the ensuing year, on last Tuesday, elected five-third parties and six republicans. Not a single democrat was elected.
This incident shows which way the organization in this county is heading, and under its present lead it will soon get there.—Calera Journal.
The Rutaw Whig and Observer says: The Kob clan are picturing to the negroes the horrors that will come upon them if Jones is elected Governor. An intelligent negro replied that Jones had been Governor two years and he was better off than he ever had been.

Of the thirteen nominees as presented in the third party ticket in this county, ten have always been republicans and three independent democrats. The child favors its father.—Calera Journal.
Let every man who votes for Jones, vote also for Williams and Morris, the nominees of Democracy for Representatives. Kob is going to carry the fight to the Legislature and it is important to the party to have its own men there.

A STRONG APPEAL.

A BLACK BELT MINISTER CALLS ON THE WHITES.

Do Not Desert Your Brethren in the Black Counties.

To the Voters in the White Counties of Alabama:
I am not a politician nor do I expect to be. But I believe all good men owe it to their state to let their influence be felt.

If politics is the corrupt thing we all say it is, it is only because good men have stood aloof and let corrupt men control. I believe the time is upon us when men without prejudice or passion should let their influence be felt.

I venture, therefore, this appeal to the white voters of the white counties of Alabama in behalf of the people living in the Black Belt.
In the days of reconstruction I lived on my farm in the midst of a dense colored population. They were marched to the polls and voted without any will of their own, just as their leaders wished—they voted as they were told. While the white people furnished them homes to live in and became responsible for their supplies, they controlled the offices and made the laws. It was no uncommon thing to go to the field in the morning and find the plow stuck from the furrow where it had been left the night before. Cotton bales would be stolen from the yards where they had been placed for safety. Corn cribs and cotton and gin houses were constantly raided. A hog could not be raised. Lard then stolen from my yard.

Many families had their stock cattle so reduced that they had only one cow and sometimes a calf. There was no remedy. Many ignorant negroes were members of the legislature. It was a law that a person had to steal $700 worth before he could be convicted and sent the penitentiary.
The magistrate in my beat was a corrupt negro, who was afterwards sent to Co. Agass. A negro could not be convicted before him, no matter what the proof might be. Property was without value. There seemed to be open to the white people one of two desperate remedies—either to have a war of races, or to give up the country to the negroes. At this critical juncture our white brethren in the white counties came to our rescue.
The state became democratic. Laws were enacted to punish criminals.
The governor appointed notaries public, before whom criminals might be tried and convicted. We were existence, almost, in the black belt to our white brethren in more favored sections of the state. For years, under white rule, blacks and whites have lived peacefully together and both have prospered.

The negroes have no hope of ever getting in power without a division among the whites.
Unfortunately this division has come. Ambitious men, in their greed for office, now plead for the negro vote. There is no division among the negroes—depend upon it, they will vote solidly as they are told by their party leaders. The man, or set of men, who are put into office by their votes will reward them for it in some way. Every two years the negroes will decide for us who shall be our rulers. Gradually the galling yoke, from which you freed us in 1871, will be placed upon our necks again. If, in the meantime, the force bill should become a law United States soldiers, with their glistening bayonets, will guard every election precinct and this fair land will become, under negro rule, a wilderness.
You who live in your white counties cannot appreciate the situation here.
White men will rule you no matter who is in office. Not so here. If men are put in office here by negro votes the negro becomes a power in the land, and will practically rule.
There can be no chance for this if the white people will stand together. We outnumber the blacks by many thousands in all the state, but in a few counties here in the center of the state the negroes are largely in the majority. We desire the good of both races when we plead for good government. Under white rule the progress of the negro socially, morally and financially has been remarkable.
It has been accomplished under the white man's rule.

The issue with us is, shall the white man or the negro rule in Alabama?
This is the only issue here. By examining the tax books it can readily be discovered what the black belt is worth to the state under white men's rule. Let the negroes come to the throne, let them say who shall rule Alabama, and very soon the state treasury will feel it. I appeal to the white voters of the white counties not to allow the cruel yoke to be placed upon our necks again. I am personally acquainted with many of you. Thousands of you are my own brethren in Christ to whom I have preached in your great religious gatherings. I have most earnestly prayed for divine guidance in writ-ting this appeal. The politicians will laugh at this appeal. Some bitter partisan, who is now courting the negro for his vote, may denounce me for it, but I know, and the white people of the black belt know, every word I have said is awfully true.
Alabama is my home. It will be the home of my children after me, I trust. My love for my native state and my desire for the peace and prosperity of all her people is my only excuse for writing this appeal.

Respectfully yours,
W. B. CHAMBERS.

COLORED JONES CLUB.

Organized in Enfield, Kob's Home.

Not that.
A few days ago the colored voters of Barbour county issued a circular, signed by prominent colored men, all known to Hon. John M. Mc-Kleroy, of this city, advancing many strong points why Kob was unworthy of the confidence and support of the colored people. The following circular was issued by them and a few days afterward:

"The Democracy of Alabama is rent in twain, and each wing is bidding for the negro vote. Now is the time for us to demonstrate our fitness for the franchise by an intelligent use of the power so unexpectedly placed in our hands; and every colored man should know which side to take and why. The purpose of this document is to place the matter squarely before them. The following are the points which are at the greatest importance to us:

1. We are asked to support Mr.
Kob because it is said that he is a Republican. If Mr. Kob be a Republican why did he seek the Democratic nomination? Why did he declare that he was a Democrat?
How can he ask for Democratic votes? How can he be an Alliance man, a pure Democrat, and a newly pledged Republican all at once?
Every thinking man knows that Mr.
Kob is as much a democrat now as he was in 1871. Or at least he does not love the colored man now any more than he did a few years ago when he was a leader in intimidating and wronging our race. And again, the resolution adopted by the Kob opera house convention says nobody but white Democrats shall participate in primary elections. We mention this to show the spirit that animated Mr. Kob's followers.

2. It is said that Mr. Kob and his party are the best friends of the black man. How is that? Mr.
Kob boasted of what he did against the negro in 1874, and he blamed Gov. Jones, on the stump in Barbour county, for showing mercy to the colored convicts. Does that show Mr. Kob to be our friend? As for a certain secret organization among a part of the people which Mr. Kob has been and is using to help him get office, we know, or believe at least, that one of its objects has been to hold down colored labor.

3. It is said that we ought to support Mr. Kob because he split the Democratic party. Suppose he has he is about to split the Republicans, too; and then he will take the two halves and try to make a Kob party.
What good will that do the Republican party?

4. The Kob party wants to abolish the National Banks. What good will that do us? The only thing the National Banks have ever done to us was to lend us money, and if we do away with them where will we borrow? The Kob party cannot lend us any. Before we strike down banking system let us have another and a better for the business of the country demands banks.

5. The Kob men say that they will get money from the government and lend it to us cheaper than we get it now. They propose to raise this money on land as security.
Now if the government gets money to lend, it must raise it by taxing the people—ALL THE PEOPLE, US, too. What good is there in that for us? The whites own the land; they are the ones who would get the government money. Do we want to help make laws that will tax us to raise money for other men, so that they can lend it back to us at any rate they see fit to charge? The government does not lend money to the National Banks and we know that it will not and cannot legally lend money to the farmer.

6. If the Kob party is such a friend to the laboring man, why does it not cut down rents? Land owners charge about two dollars rent for each acre of land, whose cash value is about eight dollars, that is twenty-five percent. More than the banks charge, and the banks run a greater risk.
The land owner risks only the income from the land; the banks risks principal and interest.

7. The Kob party has declared for a free ballot and a fair count, and say that they want every man to have his rights. This sounds well, but even now there are places in the State where a colored man who is for Jones would not dare to open his lips; while Kob men are working and talking everywhere and Jones men do not molest them. This shows that it is the Jones men who are in favor of permitting every man to exercise his rights.

8. Gov. Jones has given us a clean, able, fair administration; he has tempered the justice of the courts with executive clemency; he has protected colored men against mob violence; and he has never been implicated in negro killing and ballot box stuffing. For these reasons, as there is no Republican candidate in the field, we ought to support Mr.
Jones.

9. The colored people are now passing through the hardest times which they have experienced since the war; but the hard times are nothing to what they will be if the Kob party wins and drives capital out of the State. We cannot afford to fight money.

10. If we have any friends among the whites they are of that class who are supporting Gov. Jones. We should support the men who are least likely to do us harm and most able to do us good.

Finally, we are told by the Jones leaders in Barbour county in as strong terms as the Kob party use, if not stronger, that they are opposed to intimidation and mob violence, and in favor of a free ballot and free count, now and for all time.

Democrats at Weaver's Station.

Ed. Hor. Blaser.—Monday evening, by accident, we had the pleasure to hear the political issues of the day discussed at Weaver's Station. Messrs.
Grant, Brothers, Hammond and Mc-Leod were the speakers assembled in a vacant store house, most of whom were Jones men. There were about fifteen ladies present, all of whom were for Jones, a few Kob men and about fifty negroes. Hon. L. W.
Grant was the first speaker. He was introduced by Mr. D. F. Weaver.
Mr. Grant spoke for about one hour, and for good sound solid, clear, convincing argument, his speech was one of the best we have had the pleasure to hear in many a day. Len Grant is the peer of any man in Alabama in discussing the political questions now confronting the people of this State. While he is dispassionate, always cool, yet he boldly comes to the front and bravely, earnestly and eloquently tells the people the importance of standing shoulder to shoulder and supporting the true organized Democratic party—headed by Thos. G. Jones.

Mr. Brothers is an able speaker and did good by his fine argument on this occasion.

Mr. Hammond is a systematic speaker. He holds the attention of his crowd, and the close attention given him showed that his speech was appreciated. Mr. Hammond convinced his hearers that he was "well up" on the political issues, and his speech was full of much valuable information. We could but wish that the prejudice of the people could be overcome, that Mr. Hammond could be heard by all the people in every beat in Calhoun county. He closed by urging the people to support Jones for governor and Williams and Morris for representatives.

Mr. McLeod was the last speaker, and he began by saying every plank had been discussed by the gentlemen who had preceded him and left him but little to say. But Mr. Weaver, in introducing him, said that Mr.
McLeod had followed the plow ten years of his life. This gave the speaker a good send off, and he talked to the farmers "as one of the boys." His speech was practical, and what we would term a vote-making speech. Mr. McLeod is known to be an eloquent, able speaker, but on this occasion his speech meant business, and his argument was so plain that the most illiterate could understand and appreciate what he had to say.
This was one time the colored people seemed to appreciate good sound democratic doctrine. Beat 3 is all O.
K.

MR. H. F. MONTGOMERY has withdrawn from the race for commissioner in the first district.

Fun with the Boys.

ED. REE.

Col N. J. Stephens, candidate for representative, made a speech at Hollingsworth's school house. He talked a little about Kolb and Jones and read a few newspaper reports and took his seat.

C. A. J. Hollingsworth followed with a solid and stubborn speech for Jones.

Dr. Eadon made a few remarks and pushed back his roach and took his seat.

Thomas Nisbet rose and spoke eloquently for a few moments and then asked Mr. Stephens to tell him what party nominated Kolb.

J. J. L. Phillips asked quite a number of questions. Stephens proceeded to answer in his way everything to a stand and Stephens asked for another question. Phillips remarked: "You have not answered the questions, so that settles the matter."

EXPOSED.

Kolb's Secret Schemes Laid Bare.

The following letter, which was written as far back as last April, shows that Kolb even at that time intended to bolt. It was published in the Lafayette Sun of the 13th:

HEADQUARTERS CITIZENS ALLIANCE, STATE OF ALABAMA.

MONTGOMERY, April 22nd, 1892.

DEAR FRIEND WELCH:—Your most welcome favor of the 19th inst. received. I trust that everything will come out all right in Randolph.

Let my friends urge our people to turn out at your primaries and vote for Kolb delegates to your county convention. We can't whip this fight through a People's party movement now. The time has not come for that yet. Tell our friends just to wait till this State fight is over. I must have a delegation from Randolph. If you are swindled out of it in any way, then send me up a delegation anyhow. This contest is sure to end with two State conventions and two nominations and go on till August. I will be the nominee of one and represent the Simon pure, Jeffersonian Democracy and Jones the nominee of the other, representing the machine Democracy. I will then wipe up the earth with him, and beat him 50,000. They are sending up contesting delegations from many of my counties and absolutely robbing me of others. They stole Lowndes and Autauga and Jackson from me, but they have called mass meetings and will send me up delegations anyhow. If my plans are carried out we can easily whip this fight. We will not call it in this State fight the People's party, but do as I have stated—we will then carry with us a large element that would not go if we called it a third or People's party. You understand my position—send me a regular delegation if possible, but be certain to send me a delegation and let them be true and tried men, with yourself at its head. I hope you will whip the fight and keep the other side from sending a delegation.

Write me and keep me posted. I will not be able to get to your county before your convention.

Sincerely your friend,

R. F. KOLB.

A Leaf From Weaver's History.

We have heretofore made mention of the fact that James B. Weaver, the People's party nominee, has been a member of every party which has had existence upon American soil since he was old enough to take part in politics, with the possible exception of the Prohibition party which has thus far managed to keep clear of him. But Weaver has been a Republican, a Greenbacker, a Democrat and a Populite. In whatever party Weaver has chosen to cast his lot and his net, he has always been an ambitious seeker after notoriety and a perpetual candidate for office. There is not now a party in this country which cannot quote words of the highest laudation of itself and of bitterest denunciation of its opponents by the Hon. James Weaver. As a Republican the Hon. James Weaver was particularly malignant toward and abusive of the South. Here is a fair sample of his foul abuse of the brave men who fought for the Confederacy and shed their blood on every battle-field of the South:

"Here we have the old fight over again. The Confederate Democracy, North and South, in which the infamous Copperhead division of Iowa appears, are again contesting with Grant for the safety of the Union. As at Doustou, he proposes to 'move on their works at once,' and there is no escape for this rank, traitorous horde except in another surrender. Charge on them, fellow-Republicans, and spare not one, not even a deputy road supervisor, from total political annihilation."

In other speeches he described them as having taken part in the "devil's rebellion," and said they should "come on banded knee asking forgiveness for the unspeakable crimes they have committed," and he further describes them as a hungry, rebellious, man-hating, woman-selling gang. Yet this is the man whom some of our Southern "statesmen" want the Southern people to accept as their best and truest friend!—Memphis Commercial.

QUESTION AND ANSWER.

Sample Answer Received by Kolb Committee to Circulars of Inquiry.

Birmingham Age-Herald.

Mr. G. W. Warnick is one of the best citizens of Bethlehem, beat. He supported Kolb in the primary, but is true to his obligation democracy. He was appointed as a Kolb manager in the August election, and has recently been appointed committee-man for Bethlehem beat by the Kolb crowd.

The following answers to questions propounded to him by Mr. Jerry Fountain, secretary of the Kolb committee, are interesting and significant:

Give names of club executive committee-man, answer—H. F. Harrison, S. R. W. Glasgow, Dr. J. T. Miller, W. R. Thomas.

Give approximate number white voters for Kolb, answer—Sixteen.

Give approximate number white voters for Jones, answer—Two hundred and fifty.

Give approximate number colored voters for Kolb, answer—Fifty.

Give approximate number colored voters for Jones, answer—Fifty.

Have you organized a beat club, answer—Yes; Thomas G. Jones, club.

How many members? Answer One hundred and seventy-five.

Give any other information regarding your beat you deem proper and return to headquarters at once.

Answer—At the primary we signed an obligation to support the nominees of the democratic party, and do not propose to violate our obligation.

Respectfully, G. W. Warnick.

Dolomite, July 16, 1892.

It should be remembered that Jones received 65 votes and Kolb 201 at the primary in Bethlehem beat.

Sentiment don't sell clothes. It's price and quality. The LEAST of the FORMER for the MOST of the LATTER and things boom. It's no wonder we're doing the biggest trade in CLOTHING and FURNISHING GOODS. It's a characteristic of humanity to appreciate fine things, and where they are "surprise" you'll find the people.

The latest Fashion Plates the suits with bound and stitched edges, plain or silk facings. You read of these things—naturally you look for them when you "set out" to buy a suit. You'll FIND 'EM HERE—all of them, in chevrons, plain black and light shades, tweeds, cassimeres and-worstedes, cut in the scale of lengths that are proper. Plain weaves and wide wales. The linings and trimmings are as carefully selected and put in place as the outside finishings. We're not ashamed to have you look our suits through and through. We're conscious they're all right.

Straight as a thread through the eye of a needle we have entered into every phase of Suit Fashion. When you make a change with US this Spring it will be for the better. We have "shaved" the price until only a tissue of profits covers the cost. Our line of cheapness has been drawn at $10.00 worth weighs light below that price. Up to $35.00 quality grows with every dollar. THERE is the highest perfection. Judge us as you find us.

The sacks and three and four button cutaway frocks, made up in "wood brown," chevrons, black thibets, fancy cassimeres, clay's worsteds, etrick, tweeds, english homespun, &c. Give us a variety that no three houses can combine and equal. Don't fear of the fit that is perfect beyond improvement.
